

SENIOR SKETCHES

Rachel Albritton, B. S., Calypso Alathenian

Censor of society (2, 3, 4); president of Athletic Association (4); treasurer of class (4).

"She's a girl that cooks, She's a girl that sews, She'll make her way wherever she goes."

Rachel is very domestic, neat, and accurate, so she always "stars" when there is anything like a home economics exhibit on hand.

Alma Belch, B. A., Powellville Lucalian

President of Nell Lawrence B. Y. P. U. (3); class representative on Student Council (3); house president (4); reporter of society (4); class poet.

"She cannot be surpassed whenever it comes to wit; She has a personality that will in all cases fit."

Alma is sweet, modest, and sincere. She has an abundance of humor and wit, which make her presence enjoyable.

Jimmie Benton, B.A., Boykins Va. Alathenian

Secretary of class (1); treasurer of society (2); secretary of society (3); president of society (4); president of class (3, 4); president of Mattie Macon Norman B. Y. P. U. (2); vice-president of Athletic Association (3).

"A girl whose capability needs no one to defend, The very best of leaders and the truest kind of friend."

Here's to Jimmie, the president of our class! To every duty, however trivial, during her college career, Jimmie has been faithful. One never sees her shouldering her tennis racket until first her lessons are prepared.

Martha Bishop, B. A., Roxobel, Lucalian

Chorister of B. Y. P. U. (3, 4); chorister of Y. W. A. (2).

"Her voice thrilled like a bird; There grew more of the music and less of the words."

"Song-bird" and "ringer of bells"—that's Martha. She possesses the traits which make her admired by all, but especially by one who has fallen beneath her charming ways.

Maggie Boone, B. A., Jackson, Lucalian

Business manager of "Chowanian" (2, 3, 4); society marshal (2, 3, 4); treasurer of Student Government Association (2); secretary of Student Council (3); president of Student Council (4); secretary of class (2); vice-president of class (3); vice-president of society (4).

"A face with gladness overspread— Soft smiles by human kindness bred."

Maggie has ever been a true friend and a faithful comrade to all Chowanians. You find in her a rare combination of work and play.

Lyda Jane Brooks, B. A., Calypso, Lucalian

Treasurer of society (2); secretary of society (3); president of society (4); secretary of B. Y. P.

U. (2); treasurer of class (1, 2); class testator.

"A form more fair, a face more sweet; N'er has it been my lot to meet.

And her modest answer and graceful air Show her wise and good as she is fair."

Lyda Jane is a jolly, good companion. She is ever happy and meets everyone with a smile. She is very industrious, and we wish her much success as a teacher.

Margeanna Carter, B. A., Murfreesboro—Day Student

"A little laughter and good will lengthens life."

Margeanna has been the life of our class for the past four years. She enjoys her Latin, and defends Rome in many arguments.

"So earnest in her work and fun, We know not half the work she's done."

Addie Mae Cooke, B. A., Ahoskie, Lucalian

President of class (1); circulation manager of "Chowanian" (1, 2, 3, 4); reporter of class (2, 3); reporter of society (2, 3); college reporter (1, 3, 4); president of Y. W. A. (3); editor of "Chowanian" (3, 4); college typist (3, 4); literary critic of society (4); president of B. S. U. (4); teacher of commercial courses (2, 3, 4); class historian.

"God made a heart of gold, Shining, and sweet, and true, Gave it a home of fairest mold, Blessed it and called it you." An energetic, yet serious-minded girl is Addie Mae, who works diligently at anything she undertakes.

When she says anything, you can rely upon it. In addition to her business qualities, Addie Mae likes to join you in a bit of play.

To play with, to cry with, to love—always a true-blue friend—that's Addie Mae.

Theresa Davis, B. A., Pendleton, Alathenian

Chaplain of society (4); council representative (4).

"She is just a dear little friend, With a dimple in her chin, And with her happy little grin, She's always sure to win." With her loveable, jolly way, she wins a place in the hearts of everyone.

She is ever a good sport and a true friend, and she is always there to do a service for you.

She's fond of mischief and plays many pranks on unsuspecting classmates.

Myra Glover, B. A., Severn, Alathenian

Editor of "Chowanian" (3); assistant circulation manager of "Chowanian" (3); report of class (4); reporter of society (4); secretary of B. Y. P. U. (4).

"Whistling, laughing, or singing a song, Happy and content, she goes along."

Myra is a happy-go-lucky girl, seldom worrying over anything. Although she likes to be "Gay", she does not neglect her work.

She is always sincere and stands well in her class. In her we have a fine senior, who has a host of friends. Her happy disposition will carry her through to success.

Edna Earle Harrell, B. A., Windsor—Alathenian

General director of B. Y. P. U. (4); secretary of Y. W. A. (3); editor of "Chowanian" (4); class prophet.

"A reason firm, a temperament still, Endurance, foresight, strength and will."

Edna Earle is a consistent worker and is endowed with a practical way of doing and saying things. She is quite capable in many lines of work.

Callie Patrick, B. A., Roper, Alathenian

Vice-president of Student Council (4); assistant to nurse (3, 4).

"So earnest in her work and fun, We know not half the work she's done."

Callie is a steady and earnest worker in whatever she undertakes—owner of her own heart, we think, and master of her own mind.

What she says, she means—whether it is seriousness, sarcasm, or jest. We know that she will meet success wherever she goes.

Thelma Perry, B. A., Cofield, Lucalian

Censor of society (3); secretary of class (4).

"Sometimes we find hearts that are big, Always willing to give their all,

In the heart of this girl, we find ideals that will never fall."

Thelma is kind to everybody with whom she comes in contact. Even though a task is difficult she finds a way to perform it.

Determination is her master key to success, and she will surely win in the game of life.

Her sweet disposition and kindness have made for her many affectionate friends.

Gertrude Spencer, B. S., Seaboard—Alathenian

Treasurer of class (2); treasurer of Spanish Club (2).

"She's sweet of disposition, She's loving, wise, and kind, She's full of true affection, She cannot be defined."

Such a charming and modest personality as hers is as beautiful as it is rare. Behind her sunny disposition, we realize her ability to succeed in whatever she attempts.

Mary Stanley, B. A., Portsmouth, Va.—Alathenian

President of society (3); president of Dramatic Club (3); treasurer of class (2); editor of "Chowanian" (3); society marshal (4).

"Original, with a heart of gold, A head to fit are hers were told."

Mary is a very capable girl. Whatever she undertakes she accomplishes, and we see in her future a great success.

With success we wish her happiness. Her personality and kindness will have a lasting impression upon her friends.

Virginia Stanley, B. A., Lawrenceville, Va.—Alathenian

Reporter of class (1); reporter of society (2); secretary of class (3); society marshal (2, 3); society critic (3).

"She's kind; she's modest, sincere, and just, More studious, more determined than the most of us."

Virginia has shown her worth during the past four years. She has been ever willing and ready to shoulder responsibilities.

She is a faithful worker and true friend. Her past work predicts for her a successful future.

Marion Woodard, B. A., Severn, Alathenian

Treasurer of class (3); chaplain of society (2).

"Let the world slide, let the world go, A fig for a care, a fig for a woe."

Here is the jolliest girl of our class—fun-loving, good-natured, and happy-go-lucky. Marion never worries about what the future may hold.

ALATHENIAN NOTES

The Alathenian Literary Society has had three regular meetings during the last few weeks. Very interesting programs have been given through the efforts of the new president, Rebecca Peebles, and the program committee.

Another meeting of the society on April 29, had a program consisting of humorous and inspiring original numbers.

The program was as follows: An original poem, Theresa Davis; "A Freshman Writes Homes", Jemmie Benton; an essay, "How I Became the Outstanding Member of My Class", Rachel Albritton; "A Senior Writes Home", Gertrude Spencer;

"Pen-Pictures of the Seniors", Callie Patrick; "What Chowan Has Meant to Me", Virginia Stanley; "What the Alathenian Society Has Meant to Me", Edna Earle Harrell.

The society held its last meeting on May 12. At this time the members were entertained by a radio program, which consisted of speeches, stories, news flashes, and music of every description.

Even Amos 'n' Andy were on the air. Everyone present was kept laughing continuously.

On May 6, the Alathenians went on a picnic supper. They met on the front steps of the main building at 5:30 in the afternoon and hiked to Hill Crest Park. After walking around and talking a while, the co-eds built a bonfire. This meant a weiner roast. Soon everyone was comfortably seated around the fire, eating weiners and drinking cold drinks. The feast came to an end and its participants then turned homeward. Without doubt, everybody that went had a genuine good time.
