The baseball team left this morning to meet the Louisburg College nine in Louisburg, North Carolina at 3:00 o'clock. Having defeated Louisburg last week, the Chowan boys are looking forward to another victory on this return trip.

Coach Layton drilled the locals yesterday after a short rest or recuperation for the past three days. Having lost two games to Campbell College, they needed the rest to get their spirit in shape as well as their arms and other ailments.

Carl Taylor will face the opponents again. His pitching ability—

Sports Chow

Baseball fans at Chowan College are going to have something more to look forward to in the coming games. The boys have been putting forth some good team work in the last few games and have been making a pretty good record for themselves. CARL TAYLOR, pitcher for the Braves, has been putting some pretty balls across the plate to his catcher R. D. BELCHE. VANCE STEWART is really on the ball at shortstop; in fact we might venture to say he's the best shortstop Chowan has had since it reopened. Ser-
