

College Campus Fashions

By BARBARA THORNE

Hi, readers! You will be hearing from me for the next few months. Read this column to find out what the current campus styles and fashions are among both the students and faculty.

Because of the changeable weather many of us are undecided as to whether to wear summer or winter clothes, but by this time we have finally reached the conclusion that the winter clothes will win out.

Boy! Some of the students really have some nice looking clothes. Many of the girls have pretty sweater-skirt combinations. Only a few of these are Anne Marie Long, Ethelene Simpkins, Linda Parker, Gladys Williams, Patricia Guthrie Barbara Edwards and Barbara Felton. Ella Jane Smith, Faye Barkley, Gwin Cooper, Myra Phelps, Betty Ruth Boyd, Phyllis Coley, and Marilyn Joyner have nice looking mis-matched sweaters and campus fad at present.

if, when looking down the hall, you see a red dress come flashing toward you, it's probably Lula Pearl White. She has a mighty good looking one.

Nancy Rainey wears a beautiful black dress on special occasions such as when she is going to sing somewhere.

On Sundays the girls really do dress for church. Betty Flythe, Sara Doughtie, Francis McDaniel, Mary Lou Harker, and Mildred Mizell are only a few of these.

Whenever you need a wind-breaker, just ask Barbara Edwards to loan you one. She has only about a dozen. Faye Barkley might even loan you her pink one.

Now let's take a look at the boys. Only a few of the boys who have been wearing some nice looking clothes are: Robert Stevenson, Billy Finch, Charles Middleton, Robert Vann, and Gene Williams.

The girls really do admire the cashmere sweaters of J. D. Tilley, Joel Smith and David Smith. They also go for the boys school sweaters.

C. E. Allgood looks mighty good in his light blue suit as does Charles Fulcher in his navy blue one. Dan Page also has some pretty suits.

Among the faculty we have some nicely dressed members. Miss Cooke has some pretty clothes among which is a green dress trimmed with white cuffs and collar. Miss McQueen and Miss Powell always look neat in their pretty clothes. Mrs. Keeler has a blue, two-piece outfit which is very becoming, and Mrs. Kennedy really has a variety of pretty suits.

Professor Wright and Dean Grogan are two of our well-dressed men on the campus.

Our two Chowanians in the fashion line for this month are no other than the "Cashmere Kid", better known to us students as J. D. Tilley from Greensboro, and Linda Jane Parker from Whiteville.

Dr. John Nelson

Students To Attend Union Convention

Dr. John Nelson will speak at the Baptist Student Union State Convention in Winston Salem, November 6, 7, 8. Dr. Nelson is Professor of Christian Vocation at Yale University Divinity School.

This convention will be attended by the following Chowan students and faculty members: Barbara Thorne, Charles Fulcher, Ethelene Simpkins, James Taylor, Gladys Williams, Marilyn Turner, Kathleen Stillely, Pauline Hardee, Rosilyn Hamill, Shelton Asbell, James Stewart, Alvin Johnson, Don Lucas, Joe Lang, Charles Middleton, Charles Goodrich, Wesley Goodrich, Mildred Mizell, Mary Lou Harker, Lottie M. Ross, Lula Peary White, Miss Frances White, Miss Addie Mae Cooke and Dean Robert Grogan.

"THE CHOWANIAN" TO BE PRINTED ON CAMPUS—For the first time in its 105-year history Chowan College will print its campus newspaper, "The Chowanian" on its own presses and under the supervision of John M. McSweeney, head of the new Graphic Arts Department. Roy Parker, Sr., visiting lecturer in journalism, is having his students preparing stories on class for publication in the Chowanian. Chowan College is the only liberal arts school in the Southeast with a Graphic Arts School. Charles R. Fulcher of New Bern is editor. Others of the staff as announced by him are: front row, left to right, Judy English, Aulander, business manager; Wesley Cannon, Ayden, reporter; Barbara Thorne, Wilson, fashion editor; Lottie Ross, Norfolk, Va., religious editor; second row, Joel Smith, Plymouth, assistant advertising manager; Mrs. Bessie Lee Smith, Scotland Neck, advertising manager; Pat Holt, Swansboro, clubs editor; Vincent Godfrey, reporter; back row, Charles R. ruitcher, New Bern, editor; Branch McDaniel, New Bern, photographer; Winston B. Parsons, Norfolk, Va., associate editor; Robert Stevenson, Norfolk, Va., circulation manager; Bobby Baggett, Norfolk, reporter; and James Earl Taylor, Corapeake, religious editor. Not present for the picture were Don Lucas, Norfolk, Va., sports editor; Lewis Lane, Fuquay Springs; Shelton Asbell, Windsor, Reporters.

CHOWAN COLLEGE FOUNDED 105 YEARS AGO

PHOTOGRAPHY MAY BE NEW COURSE HERE NEXT YEAR

Plans are being considered to enlarge the present photo-lab in the new Graphic Arts building and add the instruction of photography for the next college year, it is reported.

The course will be in addition to printing and journalism.

Good Neighbors From Norfolk Visit Campus

Miss Annie Lee Ceglis, "Miss Virginia" of 1953, and officials of the Norfolk Good Neighbor motorcade made a surprise visit to the 105-year old Chowan College campus, Tuesday afternoon, September 29.

Murfreesboro and Chowan were stops through eastern North Carolina of two motorcades from Norfolk commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Norfolk Retail Merchants Association.

Dr. F. O. Mixon, president of the college, greeted the group. The students were showered with long stem roses by Miss Ceglis and the visitors. Miss Addie Mae Cooke and Nancy Brown were presented a replica of the Royal Mace from the city of Norfolk.

Pictures were taken of the students and the motorcade on the campus. The pictures were presented on T. V. in Norfolk.

The group left many students with thrilled hearts, in seeing and having their pictures taken with Miss Ceglis, third place winner in the Miss America contest.

William Carter Elected President of Ministerial Alliance at First Meeting

The Ministerial Alliance held its first meeting of the year Tuesday night, September 16. The meeting was devoted to the election of officers, as follows: President, William Carter; vice-president, Rudolph Morris; secretary, Dan Page; chorister, Charles Middleton; chaplain, Charles Davis; treasurer, Joe Outlaw; reporter, Vincent Godfrey; co-reporter, Joe Lang; pianist, John Gatling; and faculty advisor, Dean Robert Grogan.

Other Ministerial students are Gene Williams, Westly Goodrich, Charles Goodrich, and Charles Paul, religious educational director. It was agreed to meet the first and third Monday nights of each month at 7 o'clock.

Books Given By Peele To Chowan Library

The complete library of the late John Peele of Elizabeth City has been donated to Chowan College. Approximately 1,000 volumes are included in the library, which is now being processed for integration in the Chowan library.

Peele was a well-known newspaperman, the son of Mrs. Kate Ford Peele and the late Herbert Peele, former publisher and for many years editor of the Elizabeth City Daily Advance. He was graduated at Wake Forest College with highest scholastic honors in 1936 and later received his M. S. degree in the Pulitzer School of Journalism at Columbia University.

As a young man he worked in his father's newspaper office. He was Senate reporter in two sessions of the General Assembly and later served as publicity manager for the late Governor J. Melville Broughton during his campaign for the nomination. He died August 28, 1946.

The second meeting of the Alliance was held September 21. The meeting was opened by Joe Lang who led in prayer. The Rev. Warren Taylor, pastor of the Murfreesboro Baptist Church suggested that the ministerial students hold a service at Murfreesboro Baptist Church. He also suggested that a ministerial student preach a sermon and let the others constructively criticize it.

The group agreed to hold services at the prison camp at Union, and visit the hospital in Ahoskie.

The meetings were closed by prayer.

Printing Student Had Newspaper Position

Joe Carter, member of last year's freshman class, spent the summer at his home in Roanoke Rapids, working in the stereotyping department of the Roanoke Rapids Herald, afternoon daily newspaper. Carter is the son of Mrs. Ruth Carter, 1311 Hamilton St., Roanoke Rapids.

His work there was the making of plates from pictures for the daily editions of the Herald. He also had opportunity to observe some of the other mechanical operations of the plant. Carter is majoring in Graphic Arts at Chowan, and his experience with the Herald this past summer has proved worthwhile.

GLEE CLUB

(Continued from page 1)

Barbara Thorne, Polly Condrey, Betty Flythe, Rosalyn Hamill, Marilyn Joyner, Anne Long, Joyce Miller, Nancy Rainey, Lottie Ross, Ethelene Simpkins, Elsie Takesian, Lula Pearl White, Eva Williams, Gladys Williams, Phyllis Ward, and Ruth Worrell.

Altos: Gloria Cox, Francis McDaniel, Margie Davis, Pat Guthrie, Mary Lou Harker, Pauline Hardee, Myra Phelps, Marjorie Pritchard, Marilyn Turner, Mildred Wheeler, Joyce Parker, and Willie Lou Holloman.

Tenors: Bobby Allgood, John Gatling, Billy Jones, Charles Middleton, Charles Stevenson, James Stewart, Bobby Vann, Joe Lang, James Taylor, and Jose A. Granda.

Basses: Billy Finch, Hilliard Greene, Bobby Liverman, Keith Roberts, J. T. Tilley, Don Thomas, D. C. Williams, Joe Wetherington, Charles Fulcher, Eugene Herring, Frank Fawcett, Lewis Lane, Joel Smith, and Gene Udvarnoki.

Baptist Student Union Held Retreat Here in September

By James Earl Taylor

On Friday and Saturday, September 4-5, the first Baptist Student Union Retreat was held at Chowan College.

Miss Miriam Hollis, state B. S. U. worker, was the guest speaker at dinner Friday evening.

A round table discussion was held by all members attending. Plans for the year were discussed, and Miss Hollis gave added information about the program for the year.

After the meeting the group enjoyed an outing at the Red Apple Restaurant.

The Saturday session was opened with group singing and prayer. The Rev. Warren Taylor, pastor of the Murfreesboro Baptist Church spoke on "The Church and College Relationship". Dr. F. O. Mixon, president of the College, spoke on "The B. S. U. - Its place in Chowan College."

Miss Hollis spoke on "The Spirit of the B. S. U.". Miss Frances White, Chowan College B. S. U. advisor, brought a message on "My Campus For Christ."

The main speaker for the day was the Rev. E. R. Stewart of Hickory,

Va. The message was "Foundation and Function of Faith."

The Retreat closed Saturday afternoon with a luncheon, which James Stewart, B. S. U. president, sang a solo, "Why Should He Love Me So."

The B. S. U. Retreat was followed up on Sunday night by a Welcome Fellowship Hour for freshman who had arrived.

On the following Thursday night the student body was welcomed at a get-acquainted party sponsored by and held in the Murfreesboro Baptist Church. Fellowship games were followed by punch and cookies served by the women of the church. A brief devotional was held in the main auditorium by the pastor. The fellowship hour was concluded when the students formed a circle and sang one stanza of "Blest Be The Tie."

The B. S. U. Council at Chowan College is attempting and expecting great things this year for the Lord. We recognize on the campus denominational representation of Missionary Baptist, Methodist, Christian, Episcopal, Free Will Baptist, Presbyterian, Quaker, Catholic, and Greek Orthodox Churches.

Chowan College observed its 105th year of educational service to Eastern North Carolina, October 10, at its annual Founders Day program held on the campus.

Dr. F. O. Mixon introduced the speaker, Mr. W. H. S. Burgwyn, judge of Superior Court from Woodland. Judge Burgwyn's subject was "The Second President of Chowan College," Dr. William Hooper.

Judge Burgwyn said he had made a study of Dr. Hooper and that he was of Scotch descent, a grandson of William Hooper, a North Carolina representative to the Continental Congress and signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Dr. Hooper received a Master of Arts from Princeton University. In 1854 he became president of Chowan College and served until 1862. He died in Chapel Hill in 1876, and was buried there.

With the completion of the summary, Judge Burgwyn presented a portrait of Dr. Hooper to the college.

The glee club under the direction of Mrs. Frank Poole sang "A Song in Thy Praise," McCullers; "Beautiful Savior," Arr. Christian; and "Praise to The Lord, The Almighty," Early German. Miss Virginia McQueen was the accompanist.

Mrs. Julian Porter of Severn brought greetings from the Alumni Association.

Rev. Lonnie Sasser of Murfreesboro, opened and closed the program with devotional and prayer.

The program ended in the afternoon when Chowan football team defeated Newport News Apprentice School J. V's. 52 - 6.

GRAPHIC ARTS

(Continued from page 1)

stress the teaching of self adjustment as well as the most modern methods of the printing industry.

The printing industry rates at the top of all industries in the United States as to salaries paid and the gross value of its products. "There is a great shortage of trained printers, operators and workers in every division of graphic arts," Professor McSweeney said.

The printing industry offers a great variety of opportunities for men and women to apply their inherent talents and acquire skills. Jobs vary from the highest type of creative writing and art work to the simple tasks of making paper pads and remelting stereotype plates.

Since printing is one of the most important major industries, serving all other industries, it has a great influence on our social and industrial progress and on national prosperity.

Professor McSweeney has extended an invitation to the student body and any visitors to visit and inspect the Graphic Arts building.

Subscribe Now!

For subscription to The Chowanian, send $1.00 to the circulation department, The Chowanian, Chowan College, Murfreesboro, N. C.