Bums Break In Post Office

Chowan College post office was broken into during Saturday and Sunday 26th and 27th.

Discovery was made Sunday night and a report made to Postal Inspector J. T. Johnson. Johnson said today there was nothing of interest to report so far on his investigation which is continuing.

The post office has no safe or no money drawer and it was not determined whether there had been any of the mail in the boxes tampered with.

Chowan had suspended classes Saturday and allowed all students to go home for the weekend because of the wide prevalence of flu. The football team was at Wingate. Only a few students and faculty members living too far away to go home, remained at the college during the weekend.

Entry was gained by breaking the lock on the front door.

Think of the Words As You Sing Hymns

The singing of a hymn should be a great experience for us—it can be a prayer, a testimony, an invitation to others.

However, for many of us, we don't take seriously enough the words we sing.

We sing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and wait to be drafted in His service.

We sing "Oh For a Thousand Tongues" and we don't use the one we have.

We sing "There Shall Be Showers of Blessing" but do not come when it rains.

We sing "Blest Be The Tie" and let the slightest offense sever it.

We sing "Serve The Lord With Gladness" and gripe about all we have to do.

We sing "We're Marching To Zion" but fail to march to Sunday School and Church.

We sing "I Love To Tell The Story" and never mention it all year.

We sing "Cast Thy Burden On The Lord" and worry ourselves into nervous breakdowns.

We sing "The Whole Wide World For Jesus" and never invite our next door neighbor to church.

Six Students Hurt in Auto Accident; One Badly Slashed

One Chowan College football player was hospitalized and five others were shaken up Thursday night, October 24, when the car in which they were riding was forced into the ditch by an unidentified car.

The accident occurred at 6:30 p. m., at the intersection of Highways 158 and 258.

Patrolman Floyd Owens reported the students were riding south on Highway 258 when a car ran a stop sign and crowded them into the ditch on the left side of the highway. The unidentified car continued on its way without stopping.

Joe Bland, 22, of Williamston, suffered an eye injury and facial cuts, and was admitted to Roanoke Chowan Hospital, Ahoskie. He was reported in satisfactory condition.

Jim Martin, 19, Raleigh, sustained cuts and bruises of the face and was treated by a Murfreesboro physician.

Other students in the car were Jonas Franklin Edwards, 18, Route 1, Macclesfield (driver of the vehicle); Phil Collins, Raleigh; Harold Smith, Cary; and Murphy Smith, Robersonville. Billy Parker of Stokes, also a passenger in the car is a Chowan student but not a member of the football team.

Owens said that damage to the car operated by Edwards was estimated at $500 and that the search for the escaped car was continuing. He explained that a license number reported by a bystander proved incorrect.

Bland has been released from the hospital and at Press time is at home.

A FORMULA

Ordinarily it is more advantageous for a donor to make a living rather than testamentary gift to education. Oliver Wendell Holmes humorously expressed such a thought when he wrote:

"Learn to give
 "Money to colleges while you live.
 "Don't be silly and think you'll try
 "To bother the colleges, when you die,
 "With codicil this, codicil that,
 "What knowledge may starve while the Law grows fat;
 "For never was a pitcher that wouldn't spill,
 "And there's always a flaw in a donkey's will."
