

Seven Join Faculty

By JANICE WHITE

Chowan College is honored to add to its list of faculty members seven new teachers this year. Two of the new professors are in the Business Department, three in Physical Education, one is in Language and one in Science.

Mr. L. M. Wallace, Business Department, is teaching for the first time this year. He graduated from East Carolina College with a B. S. degree in Business. Here at Chowan, Mr. Wallace has a full schedule teaching business law, advanced accounting, economic geography, business math., and printers math. Mr. Wallace believes the "beauty of Pine Drive" impressed him most. He is a lover of good music, particularly that of Doris Day. His favorite food is squash souffle. Mr. Wallace's pet peeve is typing and shorthand. Incidentally if you don't know what the L. M. stands for, it is Linyear Mayo!!!

Mr. James R. Masters, Business Department, is teaching for the first time this year. He received his B. S. degree at Berea College in Berea, Kentucky, and did graduate work at the University of Tennessee. Mr. Masters is teaching typing, shorthand, economics, and accounting this year. He believes Chowan College is the best Junior College in North Carolina. "The faculty and town-people have been very friendly." Music is his main interest, although he has others. During his college days he worked on social committees and the yearbook. He was also in the band and choir. His favorite food is "anything Mrs. Beaman cooks". Chewing gum in the classroom is his pet peeve.

Mr. Frances Marion Tucker, Science, is a graduate of State University of North Carolina. He received his B. A. and Masters degree in Education. Mr. Tucker has been teaching thirty-seven years. He has been principal in Washington County, Ahoskie, and also superintendent of schools in Scotland Neck. Mr. Tucker is a veteran of both world wars. He likes Chowan College very much and is impressed with both faculty and students. Mr. Tucker is fond of hunting, fishing, and flowers. His favorite food is broiled steak and his pet peeve is lazy and indifferent students.

Mr. Jerry L. Hawkins, Physical Education, Assistant Coach, and Dean of Men. He is teaching this year for the first time. A graduate of Gardner Webb Junior College and Western Carolina College, he has a B. S. degree in Education, minoring in Physical Education. Mr. Hawkins was impressed with Chowan College at first sight. When asked what his pet peeve was, it turned out to be "registration day." Mr. Hawkins has no favorite food, but likes all food in general. As for his hobbies and interest, they lie intirely in sports.

Miss Berta Marquez, Spanish, is teacher-student at Chowan for her second time — five years ago she taught here. Miss Marquez is originally from Havana, Cuba. A graduate of Escuela Normal School for Teachers and the University of Havana, she is now teaching and studying at Chowan College. She is studying English Literature and speech. When asked her opinion of Chowan she said she liked it very much. "The relationship between the students and teachers is beneficial to all." Miss Marquez likes all sports of interest and classical music. Her favorite foods are American foods.

Miss Anna Belle Crouch, Physical Education, and Assistant Dean of Women, is a graduate of Southeast Missouri State College. Here she received her B. S. degree in Education, majoring in music and English. Miss Crouch received her Masters degree in Religious Education at Carver School of Mission and Social Work. She did graduate work in sacred music at Southern Baptist Theological School of Sacred Music. She also did graduate work this past summer at East Carolina College. Before coming to Chowan, Miss Crouch taught in a one room school in Southwest Missouri for two years. Miss Crouch believes the school spirit at Chowan is excellent. She said, "The faculty and students at Chowan are congenial, and their attitude toward the school as a Christain college is most rewarding". Her favorite food is "anything that tastes good". Her pet peeve is people inconsiderate of others. Miss Crouch is a person of many interest and hobbies. She likes cooking, reading, music, sports and homemaking. She also collects recipes and poetry.

YWA's Meet; Elect Officers

By BEATRICE CROCKER
The Young Women Auxiliary held their first meeting in the girls' recreation room of the new dormitory on October 14.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Gwen Eure, followed by the YWA song. "YWA Presentation", a skit, was given by several of the girls.

Mrs. Leo Bishop, advisor, explained tully the YWA standards. She gave the girls a little more idea of what they have to work toward this year.

Officers were nominated and voted on. They are as follows:

Gwen Eure, president, Eure; Jane Winslow, vice president, Belvidere; Joy Ferguson, secretary, Washington; Delores Hill, st e w a r d s h i p chairman and treasurer, Woodland; Beatrice Crocker, publicity, Nashville; Sarina Davis, prayer and mission study chairman, Davis; Susan Harris, program chairman, Elizabeth City; Peggy Williams, community missions chairman, Merry Hill; Marie Fuller, literature and library chairman, Wake Forest; Catherine Leicester, music chairman, Windsor; Verlinda Corbitt, assistant music chairman, Newport News, Va.; Lenora Laurence, social chairman, Beaufort; Francis Evans, social chairman, Nashville; Mrs. Leo Bishop and Mrs. James Garrison, advisors.

Wednesday night, October 22, at the general WMU meeting at the Murfreesboro Baptist Church the YWA will have six girls participating in the program. Beatrice Crocker, Delores Hill, altos; Verlinda Corbitt, Janet Hunter and Jean Francis, sopranos; will sing "O For a Thousand Tongues." They will be accompanied by Barbara Byrd.

Bicycles Bicycles

For the last couple of days several girls have been riding to and from classes on bicycles. Some of the girls think it is a good idea, although the boys have said it makes us look lazy. It is a good way to get to class quickly. So you may be seeing more bicycles on campus. It's a long walk to and from the dorm.

Boys we know where you can buy a second-hand bicycle cheap.
Beatrice Crocker

Mr. James G. Garrison, Physical Education and Head Coach, is a graduate of Gardner Webb Junior College and Western Carolina College. He received a B. A. degree in Education. Mr. Garrison taught for three years at Gardner Webb Junior College. He stated that Chowan College has the most beautiful campus of any Junior College in the state of North Carolina. Mr. Garrison teaches mathematics and physical education. He is coach of the football, basketball, and track teams. His favorite food is homemade rolls, and his hobbies are fishing and sports.

Seven Foreign Students Here

On the Chowan campus this year there are seven foreign students. Four are from Cuba, two from Iran and one from Thailand. The student body of Chowan wants these students to feel at home and extend heartiest welcome.

Luis Del Reigo, 19, secretarial student from Havana, Cuba, says that Chowan is the first school he has attended in the United States. He reports that he likes our country and Chowan College. One of the most pleasing things to him is the kind and helpful attitude of our Chowan students and faculty members.

Rodolfo Enrique Pique, 20, is a pre-engineering student from Havana, Cuba. Chowan is the first school he has attended in the United States and he likes it very much. He says, "I never thought they would be so friendly over here at Chowan and in the United States. When I arrived in Miami all the people there tried to make my way easy. I found a man in Miami who helped me very much during my trip. And these American girls OH-LA-LA. OH BOY!"

Ed Maybud, 21, pre-medicine student, is from Teheran, Iran. While living in the United States he has attended a New York High School, Louisburg Junior College for two years and is continuing medical study at Chow-

an. He is very fond of Chowan and the students.

Jay Maybud, 20, from Teheran Iran, is studying engineering. He is the brother of Ed Maybud and he also attended Louisburg Junior College for two years. He finds the country and the girls very agreeable. Jay, like his brother, is fond of Chowan and his newly acquired friends.

Samuel Savriego, 20, is a engineering student from Bamogliey, Cuba. During his six years in the United States he has attended Georgia Military Academy, Georgia Military College, Pine Crest, Florida, and the Robert Lewis Stevenson School in New York. After graduating from college he plans to live in the United States. He is trying out for football at Chowan. He was the president of the July 26th Institution of Cuba. Its purpose was to uphold the revolution.

Eloy Fernandez, 19, is also a engineering student for Santioyo de Cuba, says this is his first time in America and he likes it so much that he plans to become a citizen.

Vichai Chavengsaksongkram 32, is a business administration student from Bangkok, Thailand. He has attended V. P. I., and likes Chowan better than V. P. I. He says that our campus, students, and faculty are better.

BSU Activities

By WAYNE ALFORD

The Baptist Student Union of Chowan began its activities this year at a retreat held on September 6th, at Stephen's pond. Miss Pichard, Associate State B. S. U. Secretary for the Baptist State Convention, was welcomed by the B. S. U. members in front of the columns building before leaving. After the retreat, Rev. Roland Pruitt, of Murfreesboro Baptist Church, asked the blessing and everyone had weiners which they roasted themselves.

Following the weiner roast came the business meeting. During this meeting plans were made for the coming year. Also immediate plans for a freshman party were made by social chairman, Reba Hale. The party took place on September 10th. in the gym and everyone had the opportunity to meet all the Chowan students present. Music for the party was supplied by Robert Futrell and Robert Earl Williamson. Other immediate plans were made for a welcoming committee to greet new students as they arrived on campus. They also set up a vespers service for the football players and other early comers on September 7th. Finally plans were made for Twerp days with the last day to be Sadie Hawkins' Day and a census committee was organized to get the number of students in Chowan College.

The B. S. U. magazine sales began on September 28th and will continue through October 10th.

The State Wide B. S. U. Convention will be held in Asheville from October 31-November 2nd. All students expences will be the three convention. To attend this convention students must pay a registration fee of $1.00 to Linda Carrol Watson, Gloria Sumner, or Ed Worley. Transportation will be furnished by the B. S. U. and the only student expences will be the hree meals they will eat during their week-end visit to Asheville.

CHOWAN

Braves still putting up a strong resistance to the Apprentice team's effort. As a result of their toughening defense they intercepted their first pass to stop an Apprentice drive and the period went scoreless.

With a bang the strong Shipbuilders scored immediately after the fourth period got underway. Another drive to Chowan's two was stopped by a fifteen yard penalty. On a play through the line Chowan's large Jim Taylor was shaken up; however, the Braves scored on the next play and the extra point was blocked.

Thus, the Braves went down fighting until the end of the game.
