Roberson Wins In All Singles

Although they may not have a Pancho Gonzales or a Lew Hoad, the Chowan tennis teams have been very impressive in the matches they have played this year. As of this writing they have completed six of their matches, winning three. In the first game with Louisburg, Chowan was the victor by a margin of 5-4, and they whipped Wilmington 6-3. The three losses, those to the teams from Campbell, Louisburg, and Wilmington, were by a margin of only one point.

Winning singles matches are becoming a habit to Elton Roberson. He has a perfect record of five wins and no losses. Jimmy Moy is close behind with four wins and only one loss in singles competition. Bobby Little has a 2-3 record. Rounding out the singles team are Lanny Roof, Ed Tippett, Lawson Worrell, and David Joyner.

In the doubles matches, Roberson and Little have won four out of their five matches. Moy and Roof have a 3-2 record and the doubles combination of Tippett and Joyner a 2-3 record.

Golf Team at Chowan Adds New Interest

Golf has made its debut on the Chowan campus this spring. The members of the team have been practicing on the front campus and someday maybe another Ben Hogan or a Sam Snead will make way to the big time, and he can look back to the time he practiced and played for ole' Chowan.

This year's team has gotten off to a bad start, losing their first two matches to a strong Wilmington team. The outcome of these matches were by 1½ points and 3 points. The team looked impressive in their win against Campbell College.

The linksters for Chowan this year are Joe Bland, Jim Taylor, Richard Collier, and John Hemingway.
