

Candidates For Chowan High School Queen

The third annual Chowan College High School Basketball Queen contest was most outstanding this year, with 31 beautiful girls representing as many high schools in North Carolina and Tidewater Virginia. Twenty-nine of the contestants are shown on this page. (A picture showing the Queen being crowned, with her court in attendance, appears on another page.)

Beautiful Girls, Representing Thirty-one High Schools, Competed for

Left to right, top to bottom, are Molly Harrell, Colerain; Susan Jenkins, Aulander; Kay Hare, Chowan High School; Rebecca Eason, Great Bridge, Va.; Joan Pysny, Elizabeth City; Margaret Ann Parker, Conway; Marion Welch, Moyoock; Margaret Hedgepeth, Littleton; Marie Lilley, Gatesville.

Phyllis Hendren, Perquimans; Tillie Strickland, Nashville; Judy Joyn er, Murfreesboro; Pauline Leary, Camden; Anne Overton, Benvenue; Betty Lou Beale, Ahoskie; Betty Sue Lowe, Courtland, Va.; Nell Britton, Seaboard; Dorothy Lowe, Scotland Neck.

Lorean Wright, Edenton; Louise White, Harrellsville; Barbara Bright, Weeksville; Ann Hollowell, Sunbury; Ann Pearce, Spring Hope; Jane Edmonds, Roanoke Rapids; Gail Howell, Rich Square; Linda Journagan, Red Oak; June Tolson, Woodland; Ramona Hall, West Bertie.

Not pictured, but present, were Betty Bass of Jackson; Mary Ellen Robertson of Aurelian Springs; and Muriel Prior, Windsor.

Chowan College High School Basketball Queen. And Here They Are,

Coming from Schools in Both North Carolina and Tidewater Virginia.

