ROUTE TOO FAMILIAR

When fireman Jack Bibbs of San Deigo, jumped aboard the firetruck, he realized the truck was taking a familiar route. It should have been familiar, for the truck stopped in front of his house. His wife started a blaze when she tried to dry some clothes in the oven.

COKE BREAK—Carol Land of South Hill, Va., seems to be enjoying the Coke Party, given by the Murfreesboro churches on the arrival of the freshman students. Carol says she is impressed with Chowan and "I love it!"

Three Recipients of Alumni Awards

Three members of the Chowan College Alumni Association were named recipients of the coveted "Distinguished Alumni Award" at Commencement Exercises at the close of the college's 115th year.

The awards "presented with the authorization and upon the approval of the Board of Trustees on the thirty-first day of May, 1964," stated, "people make the quality of every epoch by the depth of their devotion and the extent of altruistic services rendered. The Chowan College Alumni Association in recognition of multitudinous contributions to Chowan College and benevolent causes involving religious and civic life of this era, hereby extols the name and life of revered members of the Chowan College Alumni Association." In each case, naming the recipient, the awards read, "with admiration and appreciation these awards are presented to: Mrs. Lola Mae Freeman Penny, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Una Lorraine White, Severn, N. C. and the Reverend Lowell F. Sodeman, Winston-Salem, N. C."

Mrs. Penny attended Chowan College before the turn of the century. While living in Raleigh, she has distinguished herself by outstanding leadership in the "Chowan College Club" in Raleigh. Mrs. Penny also has served as a trustee of the college.

She is a native of Harrellsville. The distinguished alumna has recently made funds available for the construction of a new infirmary on the college campus. The building will have approximately 6,000 square feet of floor space. However, this decision was made after and without the knowledge of the receipt of the Distinguished Alumni Award.

Miss Una White attended Chowan while it was serving as a school for girls. She has, for the last three years, served on the Board of Directors of the college's Alumni Association and has made every effort to render support to the institution. She has also distinguished herself in various roles of service in civic work and church leadership.

The Reverend Sodeman attended Chowan College in 1936-1937 and then attended Wake Forest College receiving his bachelor of science degree in 1939, he furthered his education at Duke University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

Holding the rank of Captain,

Sodeman served his denomination and country as a Chaplain in the U. S. Army during the Second World War. He has distinguished himself in civic work as a member of Rotary, Civitan and Kiwanis Clubs.

This brings the recipients of Distinguished Alumni Awards at Chowan College to four. Mrs. Lois Vann Wynn of Murfreesboro received an award last year. The authorization for Distinguished Award is for a maximum of 3 awards each year. However, it is not imperative that three awards be given.

Dr. Harris Teaching Writing

Dr. Bernice Kelly Harris, well-known author and teacher of Seaboard, is teaching another class in Creative Writing at Chowan College this fall.

The Creative Writing Class is held on Tuesday evening 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.

The non-credit course in Creative Writing is designed to give the students an opportunity to write about the "drama of everyday" and about their experiences, the near and familiar. Students who have participated in the class have received much acclaim for works produced as a result of this study under Dr. Harris. Last year a Chowan College student, Miss Nancie Allen, wrote an original play, "The Fiend". The play, written as a part of class work in the course, was selected to be presented in the original play division of the State Drama Festival sponsored by the Carolina Dramatic Association at Chapel Hill.

Under the direction of Dr. Harris, the class will produce as a class project a "Literary Supplement" for THE CHOWANIAN, the college's award winning newspaper.
