

A Tour of the Women's Annex

(No. 1)—Off-campus dormitory for girls is the completely renovated Women's Annex (formerly the Forbes House). The facility houses thirty-seven women students.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

(No. 2)—All of the rooms have been renovated and each is panelled in soft birch tones. These girls gathered for a dorm party are, left to right, Barbara Storey, Donna Vasser, Karen O'Grady, Mary Carter, Judy Jones, Betty Bracey, Charlotte Welday. The mascot answers to the name of "Patches".

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

(No. 3)—Marlene Hamlet, Phyllis Perry, Jeanne Tyre and Paulette Cox find television an enjoyable pastime in their rooms. The main student lounge also has a new television to add to the students' leisure hours.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

(No. 4)—Some of the girls choose to study in the student lounge which has birch panelling, wall-to-wall carpet and new, modern furniture. Pictured are, left to right, Rita Stubblefield, Eleanor Edgenton, Pat Moon, Mary Ann Burroughs, Sandy Tierney and Mickie Herion.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

(No. 5)—House mother at the Women's Annex, Mrs. Janet Collins, invites students in for refreshments. Those pictured are LaVerta Evans, Mrs. Collins, Judy Hollins, Pat Mann and Elizabeth Pearson.

