

BUSINESS LAW STUDENTS HEAR LAWYERS—Students of business law recently heard Mr. Guy Revelle, Jr. and Mr. Frank Bureson, local attorneys, discuss the court system of North Carolina. Mr. Revelle talked of the proposed changes in the state courts which will institute greater uniformity in the courts. Mr. Bureson spoke on the process of legal decisions. His discussion began with the start of a lawsuit, and described what might happen if certain conditions prevailed. In the picture are, left to right, Veron Porterfield, Durham; Joy Miller, Wellsburg, W. Va.; Mr. Guy Revelle, Jr., Mr. Frank Bureson; Robert Hayes, Wilson, and Cheryl Hobday, Chesapeake, Va.

MISS AHOSKIE CONTESTANT—Myrtle Hofler of Hobbsville, and a student at Chowan College has been selected as a contestant for the annual "Miss Ahoakie for 1965" contest, sponsored by the Ahoakie Junior Chamber of Commerce. The new entrant will perform in dramatics for the talent portion of the contest.

ALUMNUS ON THE MOVE—James (Jim) Hoyle Gravelly is now head coach at Murfreesboro High School and the records of his teams in competitive sports show that he is doing a good job. Jim graduated from Chowan College in the fall of 1954 where he played football as an outstanding end for two seasons. He was on a Junior College All-American team in 1955 and also All-State Junior College member for that year. The best thing that has happened to this alumnus was when he married Patsy Futrell in 1957. They now have a young son, Jeffery Hoyle. Graduating from East Carolina College in 1959, Jim received his Masters Degree in Education from the same college in 1962. The picture shows Jim when he played at Chowan with an insert of him after he had received an autographed football upon winning a conference tournament.
