By Jimmy Lassiter

The Lees-McRae Bobcats avenged an earlier defeat by beating the Chowan Braves 12-7 before an overflowing homecoming crowd, Saturday afternoon, October 22.

The Bobcats got on the scoreboard first with 2:58 left in the first period. Quarterback Denny Copenhaver hit Ronnie Rossells in the end zone with a 6-yard touchdown pass.

The score remained 6-0 until the third quarter when Lees-McRae's Bernie Storer carried the ball over from two yards out. Storer's score was set up by a 36-yard pass from Quarterback Copenhaver to Daniel Ahles. The PAT again failed and at the end of the third quarter the Bobcats held a 12-0 lead.

The Braves didn't get on the scoreboard until 1:39 was left in the game. Defensive back Guy Kinsey intercepted a Bobcat pass and ran it back 79 yards for the touchdown. Glenn Greening's kick was good but the Braves fell short and took their fourth defeat in six outings.

Queen is Crowned

At halftime, Miss Judy Hancock was crowned Chowan College Homecoming Queen. The appearance of Miss Nannette Jackson Minor, "Miss North Carolina of 1967", highlighted the occasion.
