

READY TO SERVE—Student workers in the cafeteria posed for the photographer just prior to serving the first annual "Bull Roast." The delicious meal was served in the college cafeteria in observance of Thanksgiving. Pictured are, left to right, David Inscoe, Carol Minnis, J. C. Barnett, Ted Howe, Louise Jernigan, Billie Corley, Ray Thortis, Herman Munay and Hugh Payne.

Ahoskie Area Development Group Named

Ahoskie area chairman William R. Raynor and vice-chairman Ollie M. Brown have a 10-member committee of business and professional leadership personnel actively campaigning to help Chowan College raise $2,250,000.00 from private gifts for necessary expansion of facilities.

Committee Members

Working with Chairman Raynor and Vice-Chairman Brown to secure pledges toward the $500,000.00 first phase goal of Chowan's campaign, with pledges being made before the end of the year, are L. M. Brinkley, Brinkley Motors, Inc.; Joseph R. Bryant, Bryant Insurance Agency; Hugh B. Copeland, vice-president, Wachovia Bank; Dr. James L. Darden, Jr.; William Greene, Greene Insurance Agency; The Honorable Roberts H. Jernigan, Jr., state representative; Ernest R. Johnston, Hertford County manager; Harold McCoy, manager, Charles H. Jenkins and Company; Shirley S. Pierce, tobacco warehouseman, manager, Ahoskie Fertilizer Company; W. Sidney Tayloe, vice-president, Planters National Bank and Trust Company.

Personnel Duties

These leadership personnel are helping supervise the program of fund-raising, participating in selection of other campaign leaders and collecting pledges for the first addition to Chowan's campus scene, a new library-fine arts facility to be constructed in the near future.

SERVING BULL ROAST — Mr. "Buck" Gilbert, manager of the college cafeteria cuts a serving of roast beef at the first annual Thanksgiving "Bull Roast". Students have praised Mr. Gilbert and his staff for preparing the delicious feast, which is one of the highlights of the school year.

Chowan Slated For $25,000 Foundation Gift

L.S. Staples, Secretary-Treasurer for Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, Inc., has informed Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker, President of Chowan College, that the college is being given a $25,000.00 Foundation grant toward the construction costs for its new library-fine arts facility, to be built in the near future.

The Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, headquartered at Sapelo Island, Ga., was established in 1936 for charitable and civic purposes in North Carolina. Foundation grants are mainly in education and health. Church-related college education has been the major beneficiary of Foundation grants.

Chowan College is in the first phase of a campaign to raise $2,250,000.00 from private gifts. An additional $3,115,000.00 is expected from grants and loans, and $60,000.00 from the college's plant operation, for necessary expansion of facilities by 1973, the year Chowan observes its 125th anniversary. Chowan observes etefCC to cost $5,425,000.00.

$500,000.00 Goal

The goal for the first phase of this campaign, with pledges to be made by the end of this year, is $500,000.00, with the total amount to be used toward the cost of the library-fine arts building.

LATEST FAD—Frances Nukols of Richmond, Va., is keeping up with the latest styles for young women. The shorter skirts and leather boots are popular among today's teenagers, but Frances says "it's just a novelty. I wouldn't dare wear it to a class!" The student is a freshman working towards a degree in physical education.