

MR. and MRS. JOHN B. PARKER, JR.

John Parker, Chowan Grad, Weds in Cairo, Egypt, Church

JOHN B. PARKER, JR., class of 1953, whose marriage took place in Cairo, Egypt, informs his many friends and former classmates, "There, I worked as the Assistant Agricultural Attache at the American Embassy and Seija was the worker in the Finnish Embassy in charge of Passports and records. We were married at the United Church of Cairo on November 6, 1965 and were fortunate to have the American and Finnish ambassadors attend our wedding and reception."

"Last July we traveled through Central Europe after spending a month in Finland. In the Middle East we stayed about two weeks in Lebanon, 9 days in the Sudan, 6 days in Kuwait and 4 days in Gaza, during the spring of 1966."

"Since my return to America, I have been working as an agricultural economist with USDA in Washington. I am now the country specialist for India and South Asia. In the future I will be doing more work with economic projections for the demand growth for food in Asia."

"My parents live near Winsor, North Carolina where we often go to spend the week-ends. I have over 100 Muscadine grapes and orchards there,

Graduate Wins DSA Award

FRANKIE SYKES, external vice president of the Haw River Junior Chamber of Commerce, has been presented that club's Distinguished Service Award, honoring him for civic efforts and contributions to his community. He is an assistant scoutmaster and a member of the Fire Department who worked this past year with the Halloween Festival and the Christmas Cheer Fund. He is employed at Western Electric Company.

which were started while I was in High School."

"After I graduated from N. C. State in Agricultural Economics in 1956, I went into the Army. Since 1959, I have been working with the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, and foreign markets has been my specialty with them the entire period. Before going to Cairo, I worked as a marketing specialist in the Tobacco Division of the Foreign Agricultural Service. I traveled to 52 countries while working with the Tobacco Division, and had 3 books published on foreign markets for tobacco."

"Seija is busy with our daughter, Sylvia, who was born on October 18, 1966. We live at our home which I purchased before going to Cairo."

Wedding Bells Toll

Class of 1960

ANNE ELIZABETH ALLIGOOD and Thomas McConnell MacKie. Both are employees of Bertie County Memorial Hospital at Windsor, N. C.

Class of 1961

JAMES CURTIS MCGILL and Bertha Gail Sutton. They make their home at 1006 Jasper Street, Clinton, N. C., where he is employed by the First Union National Bank and she is employed in the accounting department of Hamilton Beach.

Class of 1962

WILLIAM DALE BURRUS and Lorraine Howard. They are now living at Hatteras, N. C.

SARA LOU PRITCHARD and Merrill Elwood Copeland. Their home is in Elizabeth City, N. C., and he is employed by the State Highway Commission.

Class of 1963

EDWARD MATTHEW MCCAULEY and June Pamela Pritchard. He is employed by the Nash County Health

Dr. Charles McCoy, Danforth Visiting Lecturer, to Appear Here

Dr. Charles S. McCoy, professor in the Graduate Theological Union and the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, California, will be on the campus of Chowan College on February 20-21 as a Danforth Visiting Lecturer.

While here Dr. McCoy will give a public lecture on "The Emergent Agony of Higher Education" and a convocation address on "God is Dead: The Future of This Illusion". In two classes or informal meetings with students and faculty he will discuss "The Divine Disguise: Theological Reflections on Art".

Campus visits by Dr. McCoy are made possible by a project which was begun in 1957, and sponsored jointly by the Danforth Foundation and the Association of American Colleges. Dr. McCoy is one of several scholars or specialists from this country and abroad who have been selected by the Foundation and the Association's Arts Program for campus visits during the current academic year.

A native of Laurinburg, Scotland County, North Carolina. Dr. McCoy was graduated from the Laurinburg Public Schools, Presbyterian Junior College, the University of North Carolina, and Duke University Divinity School. He received the Ph. D. degree in theology and ethics from Yale University in 1952. During the past year he has been in Europe engaged in research at the University of Heidelberg and Basel.

In 1942 Dr. McCoy enlisted in the U. S. Navy and served as an Ensign in the line during 1943-44. Following his ordination to the Methodist ministry, he was on active duty as Chaplain in 1945-46, and again from 1952-54. His teaching appointments between 1946 and 1949 include Presbyterian Junior College, North Carolina State College, New Haven (Conn.) State Teachers College, Yale University, and the University of Florida. He assumed his present position at Pacific School of Religion in 1959.

DR. CHARLES S. MCCOY

Dr. McCoy served as pastor of the Methodist Church at Creedmoor, N. C. from 1946-47. At North Carolina State College he was director of the Wesley Foundation. He served on the executive committee of the Fellowship of Southern Churchmen and the Florida Council on Human Relations.

Department, headquartered at Nashville, N. C., where they are making their home. She recently completed training at the University of North Carolina School of Medicine to become a cytotechnologist.

Class of 1964

MARY BETH FOWLER and George Larry Ivey. They are making their home at 108 East Sixteenth Street, Lumberton, N. C.

DONNIE HUGH PITTMAN and Patricia Louise High. They live at Belfast, N. C.

Class of 1965

DAUGHN VICTORIA PARKS and Thomas Edward Casley. They live in Raleigh, N. C.

BRENDA KAY STILLEY and William Sidney Halstead. They are making their home at New Bern, N. C.

Class of 1966

FRANCES ANN CLEMENTS and James David Allen. They live at 701 Franklin Street, Roanoke Rapids.

CLEAMON EDGAR EURE, JR.,

and Audrey Wrenn Edwards. He is serving in the U. S. Army and she is a medical secretary at Sampson County Memorial Hospital.

GEORGE LINWOOD HOLLOND and Nelda Ann Hudson. They are making their home at 916 College View Apartments, Greenville, N. C., where he is employed by The Daily Reflector.

ALICE JUDITH PAGE and MARVIE EDWARD YARBOROUGH. They live at Rocky Mount, N. C., where he is employed as a linotype operator for The Evening Telegram.

ANN THOMAS NOWELL and James Fentress Lane. They live at Hertford, N. C., where she is employed by the Peoples Bank and Trust Company.

SANDRA GAYLE SINK and ROBERT DELOS LYON. Their home is in High Point, N. C., where he is employed by Marsh Furniture Company and she is employed in the office of Influential, Inc.