

PUNCH FOR PRESIDENT — Giving Dr. Whitaker a cup of punch during a reception for Alpha Pi Epsilon and Phi Beta Lambda at the cafeteria's President's room is Deborah Hopkins of Williamston, as James Hoggard of Virginia Beach and Becky Baggett of Aulander await their turn to dispense other goodies.

Mrs. McKeithan Is Appointed Dean of Women

A counselor for the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a varied background of experience in business, education and journalism is now Dean of Women at Chowan College.

At UNC-G for Three Years

She is Mrs. Dell Landreth McKeithan, who served with the administration of UNC-G for three years. Previously she taught in the Forsyth county school system for eight years after having served as an industrial editor for R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and having taught in several other schools, including the Veterans' school, being a counselor during four of her years of public school teaching.

Educational Background

Mrs. McKeithan earned the Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the Master of Arts degree in English from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She has also studied at Salem College, Randolph-Macon College, Wake Forest University, Northwestern University and Appalachian State University.

PAIR OF PRESIDENTS — Carol Carneal of Milford, Va., is president of Alpha Pi Epsilon and Tommy Blackburn of Greensboro is president of Phi Beta Lambda.

NEW DEAN OF WOMEN — Mrs. Dell McKeithan, Chowan's Dean of Women, is seen at work in her campus office.