

Dr. Marchwardt To Speak April 6th

Dr. Albert H. Marchwardt professor of ancient and modern literature at Princeton University and a leading authority on the history and structure of the English language, will speak at Chowan College Tuesday, April 6 at 4 p.m. in Marks Hall auditorium. He is sponsored by Chowan and the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) as part of their Distinguished Lecture Program.

Prior to his Princeton appointment in 1963 he had spent thirty-five years on the faculty of the University of Michigan, where he received his A.B., A.M., and Ph. D. degrees and was elected to Phi Beta Dappa.

He is the author of "Scribner Handbook of English" (first published in 1940 with subsequent editions in 1948 and 1960); "Introduction to the English Language" (1942); and "American English" (1958); co-author (with Fred G. Walcott) of "Facts About Current English Usage" (1938) and (with Randolph Quirk) of "A Common Language" (1964). Editor of "Historical Outline of English Sounds and Inflections" and "Laurence Nowell's Vocabulary Saxonum" (1952) he has contributed approximately one hundred articles on linguistics and language to scholarly journals. His researches have extended to the entire range of English linguistics.

Since 1940 Dr. Marchwardt has been Director of the Linguistic Atlas of the North Central States. He has served as the director of the English Language Institute in Mexico and the University of Michigan English Language Institute. In 1953-54, he was a Fulbright lecturer at the Universities of Vienna and Graz, Austria. He has also held visiting professorships at Columbia University and U.C.L.A.

DR. MARCHWARDT

The recipient in 1961 of Michigan's Distinguished Faculty Achievement Award, he is a member of the Advisory Committee on Cultural Information and Chairman of the Advisory Panel of the English Teaching Division of the U.S. Information Agency. He is also a member of the Research Advisory Committee of the Division of Research U.S. Office of Education and of the National Advisory Council on Teaching English as a Foreign Language.

At Ann Arbor, Dr. Marchwardt served his community as a member of the Board of Education. He was also on the Board of Education of Washtenaw County and a member of the Board of Directors of the Michigan State Association of School Boards.

He recently received the David H. Russell Award for Distinguished Research in the Teaching of English presented by the NCTE.

President Whitaker Inspects Book of Memory

Book of Memory Provided as Special Memorial

By BOBBY S. CROSS

Director of Development

There comes to all of us those times when we are at a loss as to what to do or say, especially when we lose someone dear, those times when words seem so empty and all our best deeds inadequate. There also come those special days and moments when we remember most vividly those whom we love, when we wish for some way to give expression to our deepest feelings. Almost every day someone chooses to honor the memory of a loved one through a special memorial gift through the Book of Memory at Chowan College. Often these gifts are made in lieu of flowers during a time of deep personal loss. Other gifts are made on special occasions and times of remembering. Whatever the time or the reason, each gift is a very special memorial. The names of those so honored are inscribed in the beautiful bound volumes of the Book of Memory which are entrusted to the President of Chowan College. The Book of Memory is always open for view. The president writes to the family or friends of all those so honored notifying them of the gift and the inscription.

Gifts to Chowan College through the Book of Memory range from a few dollars to several hundreds of dollars. Each gift, regardless of size, is important and the amount of the gift is never disclosed. All gifts are invested in the General Endowment of Chowan College, the earnings from which are used each year in every phase of the operation of the college. Each gift then is held in perpetual trust and is a living instrument of service to the young men and women who come to Chowan.

After brief words and flowers have faded away, the warm glow of memory remains. At Chowan College there is a special Book of Memory recording the names of many recalled and loved.

Should you like to make a memorial gift through the Book of Memory at Chowan College, please write to the President enclosing your gift and giving the name and address as you would like it to appear in the Book of Memory, the date of death, and the names and addresses of those that you would like the President notify of the gift. When you visit the Chowan campus, make it a point to open the pages of this beautiful Book of Memory.

BOOK OF MEMORY ON DISPLAY—The Chowan College Book of Memory is permanently displayed on an attractive stand in McDowell Columns.

By the direction of its Board of Trustees, Chowan College operates on a non-discriminatory basis as to race, color, and national origin.