

Carrie Savage Camp Hall . . . a dream comes true

Miss Carrie Savage Camp, of Keswick, Va., a great grand-daughter and namesake of Mrs. J. L. Camp, Sr., unveiled the memorial plaque which is placed in the new science-engineering facility. Dr. Bruce Whitaker, right, assisted in the unveiling.

Members of the Camp family listen proudly as Dr. Colgate W. Darden delivers the dedicatory-commencement address.
