Art for Residence Lobby

The entrance lobby of West Hall has been brightened by a colorful wall mural painted by Eileen DeSpagna, sophomore art major from Valley Stream, N. Y. She painted the wall of the men's residence hall at the request of Mrs. Alice Vann, director of residence hall life. Eileen is secretary of the College Art Society and a graduate of South High School.

Recognized for Masonic Service

William B. Sowell, left, and Ben C. Sutton admire certificates and pins presented to them recently by American George Lodge No. 17, of Murfreesboro, in recognition of their 25 years as a Master Mason. Sowell, a professor in the School of Graphic Communications, was made a Mason in Pageland, S. C., while Sutton, Chowan's business manager, received his Masonic degree in Mebane.

Posternock Joins Admissions Staff

Michael Alan Posternock, a native of Wildwood Crest, recently accepted employment with Chowan College as an Admissions Representative to work principally with secondary schools in New York and New Jersey. "He has been employed from September through December, a period when heavy demands for travel are placed upon members of the admissions staff," said G. Thomas Taylor, director of admissions.

Continued Taylor, "Posternock should represent Chowan College well. He relates well with people. He knows Chowan and the benefits available to students who study with us." Posternock is a former photography major and quarterback on the football team.

Students from the Northeast have increased their interest in Chowan because of the low cost and variety of academic programs. "Most of Chowan's students from New York and New Jersey enroll in math-science, pre-engineering, printing technology, photography, and art. Many of these students, both men and women, participate on one or more of the nine inter-collegiate athletic teams," continued Taylor.
