Yvonne Elliott crowned '82 Queen of Spring

By JENNIFER WICKER

A carnival, a performance by the stage band and choir, and free ice cream in Squirrel Park preceded the crowning of the 1982 Queen of Spring during annual Spring Festival activities held in mid-April.

Yvonne Faith Elliott representing Belk Hall was chosen queen, and Jill Marshall Waring representing Mixon Hall was chosen princess.

They were crowned by Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker, president of Chowan College.

The queen was escorted by Michael Dale Hertzog, and the princess by Tommy Lee Whitehead.

Members of the queen's court were, Cheryl-Lee Denise Hendrix representing Mixon Hall and escorted by Landrick O. McClain; Felicia Rosett Jones, representing Columns and escorted by Micheal Anthony

Scott, and Teresa Cristina Pessoa, representing Jenkins Hall and escorted by Mark F. Sealey.

Members of the princess' court were, Marian Leigh George, representing Parker Hall and escorted by Troy Walker Pouchot; Sherri Lynn Ward, representing Jenkins Hall and escorted by Raymond Howell Ryals, and Mae Josephine Woodard, representing Columns and escorted by Michael Darin Rose.

Gregory T. Muzi was Master of ceremonies, and music was provided by the Chowan Stage Band.

Music for the carnival was provided by the "Soundmasters", with booths ranging from the photo stand run by Columns fourth floor to a dunking tank sponsored by West Hall surrounding Squirrel Park.
