

Special music provided for Convocation

The Chowan College and Community Wind Ensemble, directed by Professor Robert Brown, provided special music for the annual Founder's Day Convocation. The group performs at many college activities, including annual Commencement Exercises.

Mrs. Ruby Udvarnoki, an alumnus of Chowan, unveils a bronze plaque in Turner Auditorium recognizing those persons whose contributions made the auditorium renovation possible.

Miss Agnes Simons, sister of the late Roy Simons, unveiled the plaque in Simons Hall. The building is named in memory of Simons' mother, Mrs. Bettie Valentine Simons, and in honor of his cousin, Melton Ernest Valentine. Also participating in the ceremony were two other sisters, Mrs. T. R. Tunstall and Mrs. R. Stewart Roberson, as well as members of their families. Valentine family members were also present for the occasion, and took part in the ceremonies.

Additional photographs and story on next page

THE CHOWANIAN
USPS 715-880

Chowan College, Murfreesboro, North Carolina, a standard junior college controlled by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and founded in 1848. Printed, designed and edited by the students and faculty of the School of Graphic Communications at Chowan College. Send changes of address notices to The Chowanian, Chowan College, Murfreesboro, North Carolina 27855.

Published six times a year in February, May-June, July, September, October, and December.

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT
MURFREESBORO, N. C. 27855