

3 griders sign grants for Georgia

Defensive backs Milton Gore and Chris Aiken, along with defensive tackle Larry Boone have signed grants-in-aid to play at Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, Ga., next year.

Gore, of North Myrtle Beach, S. C., started two years with the Braves. During the 1984 season he intercepted one pass, recovered one fumble, and made 64 tackles. He was selected to play in the Coastal Conference All-Star game as a member of the South Squad.

Chris Aiken, of Charleston, S. C., and the son of Betsy Aiken, intercepted four passes and made 38 tackles, with 17 being solo, during the 1984 season. He was also selected to the All Region X team.

Boone, of Conway and the son of Mrs. Ethel Boone, led the Braves in quarterback sacks with 7 and made 55 tackles. He was selected as first team All-Region X, second team All-Coastal Conference, Southern Division, and chosen to play in the Coastal Conference All-Star game as a member of the South Squad.

Head Coach James Garrison predicts "these three excellent football players will be real assets to Georgia Southern." He further added that "Boone is a real hitter and proved to be a standout on the defensive team. Aiken and Gore both proved to be among the team's finest defensive backs. They will continue to distinguish themselves against Division I competition."

Georgia Southern College is a Division I school with an enrollment of 7,000. The football squad is coached by Erk Russell.

Maybin slated for play with Tennessee Tech

Defensive back, Tim Maybin of Duncan, S.C. has signed a grant-in-aid to play football at Tennessee Tech University. Tim is the son of Rose Maybin of 107 Rosewood Circle, Duncan, S.C.

Maybin played sparingly his freshman season due to injuries, but was a regular for the Braves during the 1984 campaign. During the 1984 season, he intercepted 2 passes and made 79 tackles with 31 being solo tackles.

Head coach, Jim Garrison, predicts Maybin "will make a name for himself at Tennessee Tech University." He added, "Tim proved to be one of the team's finest open field tacklers. He'll continue to distinguish himself against Division I-AA competition. He'll be a real asset to Tennessee Tech University."

Tennessee Tech University is located in Cookeville, Tennessee. Tennessee Tech University is a Division I school and a member of the Ohio Valley Conference. The Golden Eagles from Cookeville, Tennessee are coached by Gary Garnell.

Chowan College Scholarshare

Mary Powell is a Chowan College student from Ahoskie, N.C. In addition to her studies and campus activities, Mary also works parttime in the Financial Aid Office.

Mary is one of 390 Chowan students who work up to 20 hours a week to help pay for their college education. Without this financial aid, many of these students would not be able to remain in college.

Chowan is pleased to provide and help pay for the work of students who take this kind of initiative. Each year, Chowan pays thousands of dollars from its operating budget to students needing financial aid. Chowan must look to its friends for help.

For only $10 per month $120 per year, you can help those students who want to pay for their college expenses. Your gift is an investment in future leaders throughout this state and nation and in our churches.
