

W. J. BOWMAN

Graduate appointed by Phillips

W. J. (Jerry) Bowman, a Chowan graduate, has joined Phillips Fibers Corporation as technical service representative for continuous filament yarns.

Bowman is responsible for all Marvess olefin filament yarns produced at Phillips' Spartanburg, S. C., facility. These yarns are supplied to the carpet, upholstery and industrial filament markets.

He came to Phillips Fibers from the Eastman Kodak Company in Kingsport, Tenn., where he was a technical representative. He is a native of Mt. Airy, and graduated from Chowan and North Carolina State University.

Phillips Fibers is a subsidiary of Phillips 66 Company and is the most diversified olefin fiber manufacturer in the United States.

Lady Braves take third in regionals

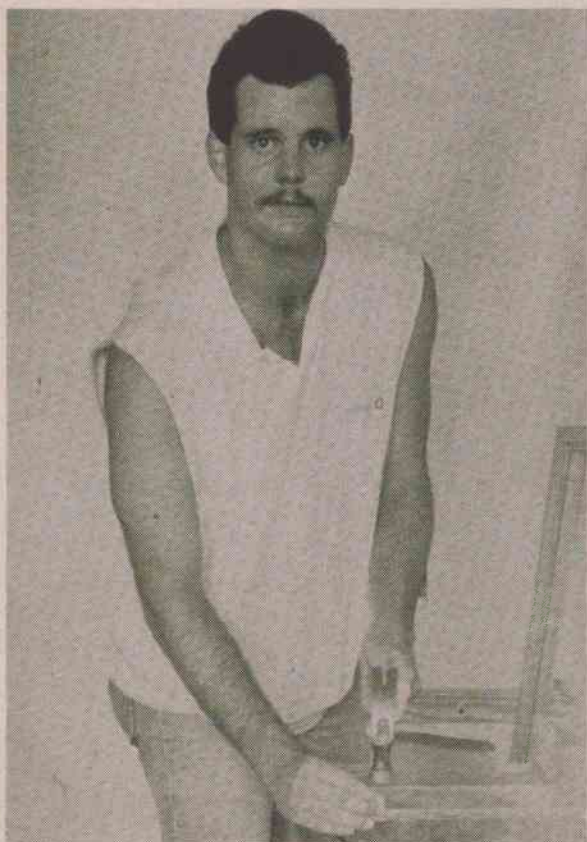

The Chowan volleyball team, defending Region X Champions, battled their rivals Anderson, Spartanburg Methodist and North Greenville in the Region X Tournament in November, and came up a little short in their bid for a third consecutive Region X championship. The Lady Braves finished third behind champion Anderson and runner up Spartanburg Methodist.

In the first round, Chowan defeated North Greenville by scores of 9-15, 15-12, and 15-3, and was led by hitters Vanessa Martinez and Rachael Rhodes.

In the second round, the Lady Braves were knocked off by Anderson in three games. Taking three of four matches from Chowan this season, the Lady Trojans' depth was the deciding edge against Coach Janet Collins' scrappy eight.

In the consolation finals, Chowan faced Spartanburg Methodist, who defeated the Lady Braves to capture second place honors in the tournament.

Chowan College Scholarshare

Gerald Spruill is a Chowan College student from Como, N. C. In addition to his studies and campus activities, Gerald also works parttime in maintenance.

Gerald is one of 455 Chowan students who work up to 20 hours a week to help pay for their college education. Without this financial aid, many of these students would not be able to remain in college.

Chowan is pleased to provide and help pay for the work of students who take this kind of initiative. Each year, Chowan pays thousands of dollars from its operating budget to students needing financial aid. Chowan must look to its friends for help.

For only $10 per month, $120 a year, you can help those students who want to work to help pay for their college expenses. Your gift is an investment in future leaders throughout this state and nation and in our churches.
