

Many students recognized for excellence

Chowan students received awards for citizenship, service, academic and athletic achievement during Awards Day Friday, April 29, in the Helms Center.

The annual, The Chowanoka, was dedicated to Dr. R. Hargus Taylor, chaplain, who was cited for his dedication to helping students grow mentally, physically and spiritually.

President Bruce E. Whitaker presented the awards assisted by Dr. B. Franklin Lowe, Jr., dean of the college.

Top Awards

Cecil Manning Davis of Cary was named Best All Around Student. Laura Ann Ryals of Siler City received the Merit Award. Angela Elizabeth Felton of Suffolk, Va., and Lyle Scott Cassell of Harrisonburg, Va., were presented Superior Citizenship. Cassell was one of five students selected to the Order of the Silver Feather for loyalty and service to the campus community.

Ernest Boyce, III of Tyner, and Tara Lynne Williams of Conway, were triple winners. Boyce captured two of the top awards presented by the Department of Business. He received the Marylou Jones Armstrong Business Award and Outstanding Student in Computer Information Systems.

Order of Silver Feather

Williams received the Alpha Pi Epsilon Award in business and the Highest Scholastic Average (Sophomore). Both Boyce and Williams were named to the Order of the Silver Feather as were Lisa Marie Siple of Vergennes, Vt. and Kathy Elaine Whitley of Como.

Yolanda Kay Faile of Murfreesboro received the Highest Scholastic Average (Freshman) and was named chief marshal. Other marshals are Edna Annie Ruffin of Ahoskie, Robert Wilson Stewart of Woodland, David W. Edwards of Murfreesboro, Melissa Ann Herring of Ahoskie, Jennifer Rae Stephens of Carrsville, Va., and Richard Jeffrey Seymour of Elizabeth City.

Fine Arts Awards

The Fine Arts Department presented drama, music and art awards. In drama, Fabian Rathbone of Waynesville won for performance and Kenneth McKee of Asheville for technical.

Leslie Jill Simpson of Princess Anne, Md., received the Mary Pierce Music Award and Sharon Rose Davis of Newport News, Va., the Outstanding Sophomore in Art.

The Department of Graphic Communications presented Most Outstanding Graduate awards to

Receives Top Student Award

Cecil Manning Davis receives a plaque from Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker in recognition of being selected as the Best All Around Student for 1987-88. Dean B. Franklin Lowe, Jr., left, displays the plaque bearing Davis' name which will hang in McDowell Columns building.

David Ray Warren, Jr., Pangoteaque, Va., in photography, and Jeffery Shawn Thompson of Goldsboro, and Karen Renee Parker of Mt. Holly, N.J., in printing technology.

George Plainos of Greece receive ed the Mary E. Wood Science Award. The Raymond Memorial Scholarship, a science award for a deserving, returning freshman, was presented to Richard Jeffery Seymour of Elizabeth City. Matthew Christopher Cereno was named Outstanding Freshman in English.

Day Student and International Student awards were captured by Carl Renee Stansbury of Winton and Piyaphand Vorapanya of Thailand respectively. Martin Abernathy Clemons of Raleigh received the Most Outstanding Resident Assistant Award.

Athletic awards were presented to Barry Groff of Manheim, Pa., Exchange Club Athletic Award; Shawn Patrick Larsen Parcellville, Va., Joseph Lee Parker Award for Physical Fitness; Elaine Marie Fala, Most Outstanding Female Athlete; and Martin Darrell Williams of John's Island, S.C., Most Outstanding Male Athlete.

The President's Cup for overall competition among the residence halls was won by Jenkins Hall. Intramural Team Championships were taken by Third Floor Simons Hall for men and Second Floor Jenkins Hall for women.

Yearbook presentation

Dr. Whitaker reads a page from the 1988 yearbook proclaiming that the publication is dedicated to Dr. R. Hargus Taylor, second from right, chaplain to the college. Looking on is Dean B. Franklin Lowe and Sonja Woods, who served as editor of THE CHOWANOKA.

Lori Lawson, president of Jenkins Hall, accepts a plaque from Dr. Whitaker in recognition of her residence hall receiving the coveted President's Cup.