Mrs. Mary Kunkle accepts appointment to Board of Advisors

Mrs. Mary D. Kunkle, of Portsmouth, has assumed a position on the Board of Advisors, according to President Bruce E. Whitaker.

Mrs. Kunkle is the widow of Dr. Herman Melvin Kunkle, former chairman of the Board of Advisors. Dr. Kunkle served for almost 35 years as an orthopaedic surgeon in Portsmouth, his native city.

He died on March 12, 1987. Kunkle began his service on the Board of Advisors in February 1968 and became chairman in September 1973.

Virginia Native

A Holston, Va., native, Mrs. Kunkle received her R.N. from Knoxville General Hospital, Knoxville, Tenn. She served as a R. N. at McGuire Veterans Hospital, Richmond, Va., and R.N. and financial secretary, Orthopaedic Surgery Ltd., Portsmouth, where her husband practiced medicine.

A member of Western Branch Baptist Church, Mrs. Kunkle has served in community activities as a volunteer worker for the Red Cross and Hospital Auxiliary. She is part president of the Portsmouth Academy of Medicine Auxiliary.

Mother of Four Children

Mrs. Kunkle is membership chairman for the International Flying Nurses Association. She has four children, Melvin, 40; James A., 39; Timothy L., 34; and Mary K. Goodenow, 29.

Dr. Whitaker said he was pleased that Mrs. Kunkle had accepted the invitation to serve as a Chowan advisor. He said that among other duties advisors serve as interpreters of the college in their communities.

Whitaker noted, "Despite a heavy demand on their time from their work and other civic and community service, Chowan advisors find time to devote their interest and energies to the college. Their suggestions and ideas serve to strengthen all phases of the operations and programs of the college."
