

The King and Queen of Spring, Daron Heggie, of Apex, and Ina Briscoe, of Raleigh, were honored at Spring Festival. Mrs. Esther A. Whitaker participated in the coronation ceremony and crowned the King and Prince of Spring.

Spring Festival activities highlighted by crowning

Ina Briscoe, of Raleigh, and Daron Heggie, of Apex, were crowned Chowan College's queen and king of spring during Spring Festival April 22 highlighted by the return of alumni for class reunions and concert by the college band and choir.

Chowan President Bruce E. Whitaker participated in the ceremony honoring the queen and princess, Gena Salmon of Lillington. Mrs. Esther Whitaker presented the crowns to the king and prince, Kevin Croom of Carrsboro. Briscoe and Heggie served as the escorts for each other.

Crowning of Spring Festival Royalty

Kevin Croom, of Carrsboro, and Gena Salmon, of Lillington, were selected the Spring Festival prince and princess.

Crown bearers were Suzanna Mari Hare, Lee Hawkins Britt, Robert Thomas Appenzeller, and Andrew Eugene Carter.

Janelle Greene, class of 1961, was elected president of the Alumni Association.

Art and photography exhibits were viewed in Green Hall and Horner Hall respectively.

Radio Team recognized for service

The two-man team responsible for the weekly five-minute radio program, Chowan Today, recently celebrated the completion of the 600th program spanning 18 years. Announcer Phil Royce, left, director of college relations, and Dr. Jim Chamblee, chairman of the Fine Arts Department, engineer, are quizzed by Dean Franklin Lowe and President Bruce Whitaker at a reception in Daniel Hall.

