A controversy arose over the title. Both sides went to law and the Salmon heirs regained possession of the land and McFarland is now suing for damages for improvements which he made on the land while in his possession. MAX ROYAL M. Y. QUILL

We note with considerable pride that the Board of Aldermen has succeeded in doing away with the much discussed "Bus-Evil." Such annoyance as buses stopping at hotels to pick up passengers, cutting corners, bringing "turners" into town and blowing out casings right in your face have been finally and completely stopped. The citizens of this live, progressive little city should take up the torch and carry it forward to a new day of hope and prosperity for Sanford. What can we do? Just bring the proper pressure and the Board can pass ordinances to accomplish. We have thought it over and we give below a permanent program of improvement for Sanford. Write your Alderman and let's get the following ordinances passed:

1. Trains are road-hogs; they should not be allowed to stop within ten miles of Sanford.

2. The United States Mail is a lot of trouble at the Post Office. The mail litters up the streets. Besides, this is an old-fashioned custom and we should, to continue to be North Carolina's Leader of Progress, adopt something to take its place.

The Federal Income Tax is a nuisance and should be stopped in and around this fair city. This is for the good of all concerned. Let's live up to our motto "Keep your dollars at home!"

4. N. B. C. network programs should be curtailed here. Did you know that the N. B. C. has chain? They broadcast on a detrimental frequency, too.

5. Western Union should adopt envelopes, without windshield fronts.

6. United States Highway No. 1 should be closed. It takes a right angle turn on one of our busiest streets.

7. Be it enacted that we have one damn glorious fire and do away with all stores, offices, warehouses, Post Offices, stations, streets, corners, boards, and other ailments.

Warning - I - I! Don't bite your finger nails! Look what happened to Venus de Milo.

Headline: "Ten Thousand Cases of Scotch Whiskey Bought for Medical Use." Wouldn't that make you sick?

Thought for the week: "I claim the record," said a local man, "I've been up a tree for the past ten years."

Things we would like to see someone do:

- 1. Cast his eyes to the corner. 2. Catch firmly at his galloping senses. 3. Tear aside the veil of years. 4. Fill up a doorway. 5. Catch his breath. 6. Swallow his rage. 7. Make his eyes dance. 8. Kiss with a burning fire. 9. Reply with a broken laugh. 10. Stare with an open mouth.

Mrs. V.S. Daughtridge and little son, Vernon, of Ricky Mount, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Riley.

Hannah McLendon, a 19-year-old girl of this county, who was recently placed in jail at Asheboro upon the charge of being the mother of an abandoned infant, has been able to give bond and returned to her home in the Pocket section. She brought the child along and now has it in charge. It is said that she has admitted the parentage of the child. Aubrey Walters, who was also in jail at Asheboro charged with aiding and abetting in the abandonment of the infant, was to have been given a preliminary hearing last Friday, but we have not learned the outcome of the trial.

ANNUAL REUNION OF THE PUGH FAMILY

The Pugh Family Association met at Meronies Methodist Church Sunday and held their annual family reunion. Judge Walter D. Siler, of Siler City, delivered the principal address. There were several short talks by friends of the Pugh family and their connections.

At 1 o'clock the large crowd of relatives, their families and connections together, with their friends retired from the historic Methodist church to the church lawn shaded by the large oaks where a long table was piled high with the many good things to eat such as is usually carried to a meeting of this kind and the more than two hundred people were soon enjoying themselves as is seldom seen in these parts.

After dinner was over the crowd was again returned to the church auditorium and the annual election of officers was held. The following officers were elected to serve the next twelve months: President, Robert L. Pugh, Bonlee; vice presidents, Mrs. Eugene Bright, Sanford; Mrs. Josephine Perry, Selma; James M. Pugh, Snow Camp, and Willard A. Pugh, Pittsboro; treasurer, Mrs. Frank R. Knight, Sanford; secretary, B. O. Pugh, Greensboro. The meeting for 1931 will be held at Meronies church, the fourth Sunday in July.
