

Personal

WOMEN'S REALM

WEDDINGS
PARTIES
CLUB MEETINGS

LOCAL HAPPENINGS
PERSONALS
SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Mrs. J. M. Arnetts and daughter, Lola, of Raleigh, who have been visiting relatives in Sanford for the past week, left Friday morning for Washington, D. C. to spend a week in the Nation's capital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Mason, of Durham, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ingram.

Mr. and Mrs. June Gunter, Miss Ruth Gunter, and June Gunter left Saturday for a visit to Mrs. Eugene Gunter, of Richmond.

Mrs. E. A. Griffin and children and Mrs. Kate Glenn spent Friday in Greensboro.

Misses Helen Howard and Edith Makepeace spent last week with friends at Bayview.

Mrs. Rosser Brian has returned to Hertford after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brinn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Howard are visiting relatives in Connetquot.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Newton and family, of Lexington, came Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heins, Jr.

C. E. Teague and Claude, Jr., spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Blue, who were recently married in Durham, have returned to Sanford.

Mrs. J. S. Burch has returned to her home in Durham after a visit with Mr. R. E. Carrington and family. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Burch, Jr., and little daughter, Margret, and Mrs. Tom Wall.

Messrs. Roscoe Carrington and Archie Palmer spent the week end at Whiteville with their wives, who at the bedside of their brother, who is ill in a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Summers and two children, Frances and Nancy, and Mr. Jarbo and family, of Maryland, have returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntosh and Mrs. G. G. Petty and family. Mr. and Mrs. Summers visited Mr. Summers' people in Statesville while here.

At the regular monthly meeting of the officers of the Presbyterian church Monday evening the ladies of Circle No. 3 with Mrs. Lee S. Jones, as chair man, served a delicious supper at 6:30 o'clock. Some time was then taken up in the regular work of the church. Last month a similar meeting was held and all circles of the Auxiliary assisted with the supper.

Miss Josephine Jones has as her guest this week, Miss Carolyn McAdams, of Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hartness spent two days this week in Wilmington with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Williams.

Dr. G. I. Adams spent the past two weeks in Goldsboro with his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gillon, of Greensboro, visited Mr. R. E. Carrington and family last week.

Mrs. E. B. Respass and Mrs. C. C. Caviness, of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Bertha Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark have returned from Chicago, where they attended the Century of Progress; they also visited their son, Weston Clark, while in Chicago.

Misses Frances Steadman and Lucy Cooper O'Brien have as their guests Misses Virginia Long and Graham Hinson, of Rockingham.

Mrs. N. A. Underwood is attending the Century of Progress in Chicago.

Misses Jane and Martha Isenhour have as their guests Misses Frances Malone and Penelope Weatherly, of Mebane.

Mrs. J. F. Rivers is visiting her son, C. W. Teal, in Boone.

Mr. James Burch, Jr., of Washington, D. C., came last Thursday to be with his wife and little daughter, Margaret, who are spending some time here.

Mrs. James Burch, Sr., of Durran, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carrington.

Mrs. J. F. King has returned to Rockingham after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Gilchrist and son, Herman King.

Mrs. Mollie Badgett and daughter, Miss Jessie Campbell, and Mr. Harry McFall, of Knoxville, Tenn., are visiting Mrs. Ada Pitts, Messrs. Paul and Rex Kelly, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Mollie Badgett.

Misses Lucile and Cornelia Cheek are visiting Mrs. Newby Dark in Siler City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson and little daughter, Patricia, of Greensboro, who have been at Bayview for the past week, are visiting Dr. M. L. Matthews and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Martin, of Winston-Salem, were Sunday guests of Dr. M. L. Matthews and Mrs. Rex Kelly.

Mrs. Carrie Harper and grandson, Norwood Mickle, of Fayetteville, are visiting Mrs. W. C. Donnell.

Miss Alma Stewart had as her guest last week, Miss Katie Armfield, of Monroe.

Mrs. D. C. Lawrence and daughter, Mrs. Bob Benson, and little daughter, Mary Thornton, are visiting relatives in Macon. Mr. Benson and Lewis Lawrence accompanied them and returned.

Mrs. H. A. Palmer has returned from Margaretville where she spent some time with a sick relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kelly have returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where they visited Mrs. Mollie Badgett.

Mrs. Ada Pitts visited her sister,

Mrs. Morgan Honored.
With Mrs. Estace LaVoy Morgan, popular recent bride as their honoree, Mesdames H. C. Roberts and J. R. Lynch gave a beautiful party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Roberts in Melver Park.

Masses of beautiful mid-summer flowers with glowing pink tapers and softly shaded lights combined to create a most beautiful effect. A musical program was given, the number of which were: a piano solo, "Love's Old Sweet Song," by Mrs. A. L. O'Brian accompanied by Mrs. E. W. Hunter; a vocal solo, "All for You," by Mrs. W. H. White, accompanied by Mrs. M. J. McPhail; a duet, "Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Mrs. H. F. Makepeace and Mrs. Bessie Buchanan, accompanied by Mrs. E. W. Hunter; a vocal solo, "Cupid's Fishing," by Mrs. T. J. Brooks, accompanied by Miss Ruth Phillips; and a duet, "Because You Are You," by Mrs. W. H. White and Miss Maude Cotton, accompanied by Mrs. M. J. McPhail.

An interesting contest "A Musical Romance" was then staged and the prize was won by Mrs. C. C. Hatch, Jr. The hostesses served delicious block cream and cake. The real climax of the evening came when an immense basket was brought in and presented to Mrs. Morgan. This proved to be filled with beautiful miscellaneous gifts from her friends for which the bride most gracefully expressed her appreciation.

Guests included Mesdames Estace LaVoy Morgan, T. L. Riddle, B. C. and L. C. Wallace and R. L. Yow, of Carthage; Wilbur McIver, B. B. Kanner, W. E. Horner, A. L. O'Brian, Ralph Groce, Victor King, W. H. White, W. C. Moffitt, Bill Ramsey, Wade Jones, Harry Frazier, Lynn McIver, Jr., E. W. Hunter, M. J. McPhail, H. F. Makepeace, Bessie Buchanan, T. J. Brooks, Ernest Kelly, Fred Byerly, of Dunn, W. L. Jewell, C. G. Hatch, T. S. Cross, B. Frank Hamilton, R. O. Humphrey, C. C. Hatch, Jr., and Misses Reid Riddle, Lena Mae Palmer, Frances Wilkins, Betsy Hartness, Ruth Phillips, Anna Rogers, Mary Frances Underwood, Floy Rivers, Katherine Smith, Maude and Ruth Cotton, Mildred Cross, Martha Webster, Margaret Clark, Geneva Way, Agnes Byrd, Catherine Monroe, Helen Rosser, Marjorie Johnson, and Miss Lee, of Smithfield.

Mrs. McDonald Entertains Club.
Mrs. S. R. McDonald was cordial hostess to the Merry Doseen Rook Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Gordon street.

Mid-summer flowers filled the living room where there were three tables of rook in play. High score prize, a cake plate, was won by Mrs. J. R. Bowers and low score prize, a linen towel, by Mrs. E. T. USSery.

Following the games the hostess served delicious home made peach ice cream, cake, and punch. Special guests were Mesdames J. R. Bowers, Mary Lashley, and W. H. Heins. The club will be entertained next by Mrs. Jack Riddle.

Presbyterian Circle To Meet.
The circles of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 as follows:
Circle 3 with Mrs. Mary McIver.
Circle 4 with Mrs. C. H. Crabtree.
Circle 5 with Mrs. A. F. Womble.
Circle 6 with Mrs. W. C. Donnell.
Circle 7 with Mrs. Chas. L. Scott.
7:30 P. M.
Circle 1 with Mrs. S. R. McDonald.
Circle 2 with Mrs. E. C. Heins, Jr. and Jack Rives.

Party for Younger Set.
A very delightful party for members of the younger set was given Thursday evening by Ralph Monger and Robert Howard at the home of Edwin Hubbard.

Progressive conversation and games formed the evening's diversions and the hosts served ice cream and cake.

Those present were Misses Sally Stewart, Mildred Riddle, Roberta Weight, Mildred Gilliam, Helen Foust, and Ralph Monger, Robert Howard, Edwin Hubbard, Dan Stout, Harold Williamson, and Alton McLeod.

Alice Green Society To Meet.
The Alice Green Missionary Society will meet Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock in Melver Park. The regular meeting will be held followed by a picnic supper.

O. E. S.
The regular meeting of Sanford Chapter 48 Order of the Eastern Star occurred Thursday evening in the chapter room in the Masonic Temple with Miss Daisy Band, Worthy Matron, presiding.

Routine business was transacted and an excellent report was made by Mrs. F. R. Snipes, chairman of the cheer committee, as to visits, flowers, and trays for the sick during the past month. Squares which had been made by members for the quilt during the past month were collected.

Visiting Girls Honored.
Honoring Miss Mary Elizabeth Armbruster, of Raleigh, popular house guest of Miss Cornelia Atkins, Miss Bernice Hunt was hostess Thursday evening at two tables of bridge.

Games were most interesting and high score prize, silk lingerie, was won by Miss Alma Stewart. The hostess served delicious assorted sandwiches and iced tea.

Making up the tables were Misses Mary Elizabeth Armbruster, Cornelia Atkins, Barbara Kelly, Julia Chaffin, Currie Golden, Mary Mercer Reeves, Alma Stewart, and the hostess.

Honors House Guest.
Miss Alma Stewart complimented her attractive house guest, Miss Kate Armfield, of Monroe, when she entertained Friday evening at two tables of bridge.

Beautiful garden flowers formed an effective setting for the tables. Progressions were most spirited and at Methodist Circles To Meet.

The circles of the Woman's Auxiliary of Steele street Church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 as follows:
Circle 1 with Mrs. E. A. Griffin.
Circle 2 with Mrs. W. M. Leggett.
Circle 3 with Mrs. H. C. Roberts.
Circle 4 with Mrs. M. G. Yarborough.

Swimming Party.
Several of the members of Miss Mary Belle Buchanan's class of Steele street Sunday School enjoyed a swimming party Tuesday afternoon at Paradise Vista.

Leaving town about 1:30, they enjoyed the drive out and spent the afternoon swimming and boating. A delicious picnic supper was then enjoyed.

Mrs. Wagener Entertains Club.
A very lovely meeting of the Galatea Club occurred Tuesday morning with Mrs. H. M. Wagener as hostess.

Masses of summer flowers formed a colorful background for the three tables of contract which were in play throughout the morning. Club prize, a sugar and cream, was won by Mrs. D. C. Holler and guest prize, a piece of pottery, by Mrs. C. H. Crabtree. At noon the hostess served a delicious and elaborate two course luncheon, assisted by Mesdames L. D. Isenhour and James Bridges.

Guests in addition to club members were Mesdames Frank Clegg, James Bridges, C. H. Crabtree, R. E. McCulloch, C. H. Porter, Bill Ramsey, and Fred Page. The club will meet next with Mrs. L. G. Barefoot.

PERSONAL
Mrs. E. W. Griffin and two children, Wilson and Ellie, who visited Mrs. Griffin's mother, Mrs. W. S. Weatherspoon, have returned to their home at Hamlet.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kendall, of Johns, recently visited Mrs. Kendall's mother, Mrs. W. S. Weatherspoon at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Harry McIver and daughter, of Chapel Hill; Mrs. Lizzie Weatherspoon, of Greensboro; Mrs. Emma Hamlet, of Mt. Gilead, also visited Mrs. Weatherspoon.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Y. Russel and daughter, Miss Seba, of Baltimore, spent a few days with relatives and friends in Roxboro and Sanford, returning to their home in that city this week.

Mrs. Fred Byerly, of Dunn, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Makepeace, last week.

Mrs. J. W. Gilliam has returned from Hobgood, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Hedgepeth.

Mrs. Cooper Honors House Guest.
Honoring her attractive house

There's Always a Reason--

There's a reason why people continue to use our drugs and our prescription service month after month and year after year.

They know that once their prescription has been given our pharmacist their worries are over. It will be filled with rigid accuracy, and by one whose pharmaceutical training is beyond question--And it will be compounded with the highest class drugs, TOO.

The knowledge that your prescription is being handled under such conditions removes a lot of needless worry and much uncertainty.

Thomas Drug Store,
NEW LOCATION ON--
STEELE STREET SANFORD, N. C.
THIS STORE OPEN NIGHTS--6 to 11 o'clock.

Mrs. J. L. Sherill, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sherill and Joe Sherill, and Miss Elizabeth Roach, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Makepeace, have returned to their home at Statesville.

Mrs. D. C. is visiting his wife and mother, Mrs. Kate McIver.

Misses Elizabeth and Katherine Gilliam spent last week in Oxford with Mrs. D. J. Gooch.

Mrs. J. C. Adherbit, Mr. Benton, Mr. D. E. McIver, of Washington, spent the week end with them.

PORT IN A STORM

IF EVER THERE WAS A TIME WHEN YOUR POCKETBOOK NEEDED A FRIEND IT IS NOW:
IF EVER THERE WAS A TIME WHEN YOU HAD TO DECIDE CAREFULLY WHERE YOUR MONEY WILL BUY IT'S FULL MONEY'S WORTH IT IS NOW:

HIGHER WAGES
ADVANCING COSTS
PROCESSING TAXES
NEW PROFIT TAXES

Piled Up on Top of State Sales Tax

—all these new costs will tend to make prices go up.

THEY ARE GOING UP.
THEY SHOULD GO UP—SOMEWHAT—FOR THE GOOD OF EVERYONE.

But someone must keep a rational rise from getting out of control and RAIDING YOU. BELK'S will protect you to the limit of its practical efficiency.

The word "Low," in the reflagged old phrase "Belks LOW, WASH PRICES," means LOW—and will continue to mean LOW. Belk's is a good safe place to tie to during uncertain times.

—OPEN—
9 a.m. — 5 p.m.
SATURDAYS
9 a.m. — 9 p.m.

An Adjustomatic Will Pay Its Way--

COSTS LESS TO OPERATE FOR REPAIRS AND THE FIRST COST IS FAR LESS (than it will be on September 1st)

$1.00 Off For Your Old Iron 95c Down—75c Per Month

YOUR FAVORITE ELECTRICAL DEALER

Is also offering an electric iron of standard quality and comparable features at an attractive price and on convenient terms. Buy before prices go up!

Buy From Any Employee Or Call Our Salesroom

IRON WITH EASE, SPEED AND COMFORT

CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

RESIDENTIAL COMBINATION SERVICE—R.A.P.

ONE OF THE LOWEST RATES IN THE CAROLINAS

FOR COMBINATION LIGHTING COOKING AND HEATING SERVICE