JONESBORO NEWS LETTER

BY MRS. J. R. DALRYMPLE

Pastor Given Vacation

Rev. Frank Hare announced Sunday morning that he had been given a vacation by his churches, extending through the month of August. Mr. and Mrs. Hare will spend their vacation here and elsewhere. Prayer meeting services will be conducted by a committee appointed by the pastor.

Birthday Party

Last Friday evening Mrs. H. L. Caddell entertained at a delightful party honoring the eleventh birthday of her daughter, Lora Foy. Tables were arranged on the porch where a big saw puzzle contest was enjoyed, Rebecca Oehler being winner of the prize. A number of other children's games were enjoyed. The guests were then invited into the dining room where a color scheme of pink and white was carried out. The table was centered with a lovely white birthday cake with pink candles. Mrs. D. F. Harris assisted Mrs. Caddell in serving ice cream and cake. Favors were pink and white baskets of mints. About twelve little girls were present, and many useful gifts were received by the hostess.

Return from Philadelphia

Miss Louise Temple and W. G. Temple, Jr., returned Sunday from Philadelphia where W. G., Jr., underwent an examination of the throat at Jefferson Hospital. The many friends of W. G. are delighted to know that his throat was found to be cured and it will not be necessary for him to return there for treatment in the future.

Home Coming Day at Memphis

All former residents and friends of Memphis Methodist church community are invited to attend Home Coming services there the second Sunday in August. There will be a sermon at eleven and the afternoon hour will be featured with singing and other things of interest. Come and bring the family and a well filled basket for the old-fashioned dinner which will be served at the noon hour.

Meeting of W. M. U.

Mrs. W. T. Saunders entertained

the W. M. U. of the Baptist church at her home one mile from town Monday afternoon with Mrs. Victor Rice as joint hostess. The reception hall and living room were very attractive with a profusion of colorful summer flowers. Following the devotional by Mrs. T. T. Lanier a most interesting program was rendered.

During a very pleasant social hour the hostesses, assisted by Misses Mabel and Adele Saunders served cream and cake.

Belle Barnes Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Belle Barnes Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the church with a good attendance.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. J. N. Martin. A feature of the program was the instrumental music rendered by Miss Lucy Bynum Lambeth. After a brief talk by the president, Mrs. L. L. Thomas, the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. T. E. Wyche.
