The pictures and the music at the Gem last night were both well worth going to see and hear. One man was overheard to remark that he was willing to go there whether there were any pictures or not, as the music alone was well worth the price at a ticket. The comedies were all good, and the Indian drama was fine. So natural was the cabin scene on board the ship in 'The Uplifting of Mr. Barker, that, as the poor seafaring voyagers were sung about, the audience were almost seasick themselves. The program, which appears elsewhere in the paper, will be a very pleasing one tonight, and as cheerful one as well. Orchestra tonight.

Should Make a Survey of Sidewalks

The News suggests, that a survey of the different sidewalks in the city be made at once in order to get the proper levels, so when the paved streets and sidewalks are placed there will not be the trouble experienced as heretofore when Main street was paved. If this was done prior to the contemplated improvement the citizens residing along the streets to be paved, would not be put to the extra expense of having their walks fixed the second time. Then, too, their appearances would be so much more inviting. As a sample of these unsightly sidewalks, one has only to walk down Market street toward the water. The sidewalk is about a foot higher than the curbing—a thing most unsightly to the eye, and should never have happened. Measurements and levels of the sidewalks should be taken at once and avoid all this trouble in the future. The cost would not be much and could be taken from the amount appropriated for streets. Let the walks be surveyed without delay. There are many citizens who desire to improve the sidewalks but do not care to do so under present conditions.

MAMMOTH SIGN.

Large Sign Painted on Bailey Supply Co. Store. One of the largest and most attractive signs in the city has just been painted on the Bailey Supply Company's three-story building on West Main street.

NOT A SUCCESS.

The eclipse was not a success from a spectacular point of view last night. Although the moon was visible, the haze was too thick to allow Mars to be seen, and so those who looked were not rewarded for their trouble. Within a few weeks Mars will be a hundred million miles nearer the earth than it has been for over fifteen years, and, therefore, all the great astronomers will be eagerly awaiting the time, about the 25th of September, when they are only thirty-five million miles distant from our large neighbor!

WE ALL HOPE SHE WILL WIN

"The most popular little girl in Asheville, whenever she may be," says the Asheville Citizen, "will shortly be made happy by a very charming Parisian lingerie frock, which is at present at the art store of Miss Moore, on Patton avenue. Chances at 25 cents each are being bought, each purchaser nominating a child. The proceeds go to a well known charity. The frock is very handsome and is made of line which cost $2.50 a yard, and the embroidery is very delicately done." Little Miss Martha Bragaw's name is entered on the list, and the many friends of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bragaw, formerly of this town, will all hope that she is to be the lucky one.
