TOWN TALK

RESOLUTION SHATTERED.

The Moral Sustion Scheme Didn't Work on Jack Jones.

A little boy came home one day from school in a very bad humor. Another boy, Jack Jones, had given him a thrashing, and he wanted revenge.

"Oh," said his mother, "don't think of revenge, Willie. Be kind to Jack. Heap coals of fire on his head. Then he will become your friend."

Willie thought he would try this method. So the next day at recess, just as he was buying a lemon pie for luncheon, Jack appeared and said:

"Look here, I licked you yesterday, but I didn't give you enough. Now I'm going to lick you again."

And he planted a hard blow on Willie's little stomach.

Willie gasped, but instead of striking back he extended his fist to Jones.

"Here," he said in a kindly voice.

"I'll give you this. I make you a present of it."

Jack, in glad amazement, fell upon the pie greedily, and it had soon disappeared.

"Gosh, it was good!" he said. "What did you give it to me for?"

"Because you struck me," said the beater of the coals.

Instantly Jack hauled off and struck him again. "Now go and get another pie," he said.—Ladies' Home Journal.

FINANCE.

Mr. G. A. Womble left yesterday afternoon on a business trip to points in Eastern North and South Carolina.

Miss Clemmie Flemming and Mrs. Molly Flemming, of Grimesland, who have been visiting friends here, left yesterday for their home.

Miss Lillian Pickering returned to Aurora yesterday afternoon after a visit to Mrs. Ellis on East Main street.

Miss Belva Bennett returned to her home in Edward, after visiting friends and relatives there.

Mr. C. D. Parker left yesterday on a short business trip.

Mrs. Margaret Ross and Sadie Bonner, of Bonner, spent yesterday with friends in the city on their way to Littleton Female College.

Mr. Mark E. Ross, of Bonner, spent the day here yesterday en route to Weidom.

Mr. L. H. Redditt and daughter, Miss Emily May of Edward, left today for Greensboro, where Miss Emily will attend the Greensboro Female College.

"Pat" called the son from the stairway.

"Go to bed and let me alone," blurted Jones. "I've just barked my shins."

"Pat" called Tommy, after a moment's silence.

"Well, what is it? Didn't I tell you to keep quiet?"

"I—I didn't hear your shi's bark."

And the next moment Tommy was being pursued by an angry sire with a hard hair brush.

IN THE HOME

GOWAN'S PREPARATION is a valuable preparation for removing calico stains, coughs, pains and sores in lungs and throat. Relieves asthma by destroying the inflammation and congestion. External application to skin, etc., in all draughts.

Master Fred Moore leaves for Beaufort tonight, where he will resume his studies in St. Paul's school.

Mr. F. J. Nicholson, roadway civil engineer of the N. & S., passed through the city this morning en route to Norfolk.

A Powerful Drama.

What is conceded to be one of the most powerful American dramas written in recent years is Lem B. Parker's new romance of a phase of life in our idle rich class entitled "The Final Settlement," which comes to Peacock's Opera House next Friday.

The theme of the story is daring and sensational, and attacks those members of society who seek recourse to the divorce courts to relieve themselves of undesirable mates. The climaxes and situations are startling and spontaneous, and the story well told and consistent. The company is headed by Miss Marion Sherwood and is one of unusual excellence, and Manager Clay T. Vance promises a first-class production.

THE NUMBER INCREASES.

The additional new scholars that entered the Public Schools this morning places the enrollment at about 640. In publishing an account of the school opening yesterday, furnished by the superintendent, he inadvertently omitted the name of Mr. W. K. Jacobson, as being one of the speakers.
