Have you seen finer acting or better pictures than the Charlotte Corday drama shown last night at the Gem? It was all and more than was promised. It is a privilege to see such pictures. Such scenes as these would fix historical facts in the mind of either adult or child. The comedies were unusually good, also. Tonight's list will show two good comedies, a melodrama and two dramas. The Gem orchestra will play tonight. OCTOBER WEDDING. The following invitation has been issued: Mr. James E. Clark invites you to be present at the marriage of his niece Willie Ruth Hargrove to Mr. John Goldsmith Bragaw, Jr. on the morning of Wednesday the sixth of October nineteen hundred and nine at ten o'clock St. Peter's Church Washington, North Carolina. No cards will be sent out in the city. Oil Inspector is Appointed. Mr. William Watson, son of the late Mr. Joseph Watson, of Swan Quarter, N. C., has been appointed by the State Department of Agriculture as Oil Inspector for the First Congressional District, to succeed Capt. George J. Studdert, of this city, recently resigned. Mr. Watson is a young man of worth and no doubt will fill the position creditably. He has already entered upon his duties. SENT TO JAIL.
