HOWE'S GREAT LONDON SHOWS

A Revelation—Even to Old Circus Lovers—An Original Creation.

The performance is exceptionally fine and full of interest to all lovers of the ring. Nearly everything is entirely new, and what is not is managed and brought out under such new methods and system that every act is refreshing and pleasing. The Howe's Shows seem not willing to simply pursue a business on antique methods, but to advance the show business to more genteel and refined lines. All vulgarities and ancient impoliteness, in and out of the ring, have been eliminated, and the show will meet with unbounded favor wherever it goes this year. We say this in all sincerity. Great improvements are noticeable, especially to us old fellows, who have attended every circus for more than 50 years that has come along. No gentleman or lady, no matter how moral or religious the calling they pursue, nor what refined creche they move in, need hesitate to attend the show, nor be certain of anything but refined pleasure, free from anything that disgusts or casts a shadow of contempt. This is as it should be, and we predict a greater future for the Howe's Shows on these lines than has ever been enjoyed by any competitor.

The new manager is a vast collection of the earth's most interesting and marvelous wonders.

New cages, rolling stock, equipment, all bright in gold and silver, will be seen for the first time after a full winter's embellishment by scores of expert artisans.

The show date here is Tuesday, October 12th.

CAMPBELL'S CREEK NOTES.

We had plenty of frost last week. Mr. J. H. Austin while working on our new school building last week, hit the wrong nail on the head, and severely mashed his thumb.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Jones, of Royal, visited Mr. Jones' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin, of this place, last Sunday.

Lodge No. 17, C. B. H., of South Creek, seems to be on a boom, they had four initiations last Saturday, with more to follow.

Mr. Cepin Lewis and Mr. Jesse Bennett, of Neville Creek, visited Mr. Daniel Lewis and other relatives at this place last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Daniel Lupton, of Lowland, was here Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. F. Washington.

Mr. W. W. Weatherington and wife of Lowland, visited Mr. Weatherington's mother, of this place, Saturday and Sunday.

Henry Howerin, son of Mr. Joe Howerin died very suddenly Sunday night. The bereaved family have our deepest sympathy.

Last Tuesday morning a party composed of R. H. Mixon, F. M. Mayo, C. H. Powers, Joe Ives, Fred Sawyer, W. L. Mayo, J. H. Austin, D. I. Berling and W. J. Austin left South Creek on the smart little gasboat Victor, Capt. Willden Springer, master, bound for Pantego. The purpose of the visit of this party to Pantego was to attend the District Council of the C. B. H. for Beaufort county division. After a very pleasant ride over the beautiful waters of Pamlico and Pungo Rivers, we arrived at Pantego about 9 o'clock, and though we were all strangers in Pantego it only took a few minutes as we began to meet the brethren to make us feel perfectly at home. We would like right here to give a short account of our visit.

After we arrived we began to look for the signs of Pantego's future, and we were not long in finding it, when we beheld Pantego's comfortable school building. We said to ourselves the future of this little town is assured, and the Pantego of today is nothing compared to the Pantego of the future. Everybody has heard and knows of the three bad crop years that Pantego section has had, but we want to say that despite the bad crop years Pantego is not "busted." When the council took a noon recess these Pantego brethren spread a dinner that was fit to set before kings and queens, and they surely ought to feel proud of their good women, for they certainly know how to prepare something good to eat, and after preparing it so nicely we only wish they could have been with us to help us enjoy it. Beaufort county citizens know something of the great work that the C. B. H. is doing, and has done, but we want to say that what she has done in the past is nothing compared to what it will do in the future if our people will only be prompt and give it the encouragement that it ought to have. If we will only do our duty the C. B. H. will live on, and on, down through the ages, to be a blessing and benediction to generations yet to come.

for this time, and ask the blessing of an all-wise Heavenly Father to rest upon it.

BILL JUSTICE.

Miss Pearl O'Neal spent last Tuesday at Mr. R. D. Hodges'.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gaylord and little daughter, Ella, were in our vicinity today.

Mr. J. R. Hodges went to New Bern on business Monday.

The show here last week was fine, and every one seemed to enjoy it.

MINSTER JOHN Myrtle died this week with hemorrhagic fever.

I am sorry our little news girl is not able to write this week, but hope she will next week. L. M. H.
