NO PAPER TOMORROW.

The Daily News in common, with its numerous readers and patrons will observe Thanksgiving day to-morrow, so there will be no issue of the paper. The paper will appear again Friday afternoen, as has been its custom. The management hopes every citizen of the city and county will enjoy a pleasant and profitable Thankirgiving and that each and ev-ery one will live to witness many

THANKSGIVING

Thunksgiving Day should be the gladdest day in all the year, and no citizen residing in this Christian land should fall to fittingly observe and commemorate it. How thankful all should be for the mean blessings that have been theirs from the Giver of every good and perfect gift. On tomorrow let all the citizens of Washington assemble in their respective places of worship and show gratitude to the lowly Nazarine for the ours, for food, raiment - for life. Let us not forget those less fortung The perfect Thanksplying celebratic should find our hearts and hom
