Henrietta, the prize of the flock, is dead. She was an egg a day bird in the simpler times when hens went to roost early instead of sitting up late to see the rays of the Kleagle Highway are lights reflected from their dazzling tails that they were too sleepy to lay in the morning. She strutted too far when she strutted across the road to Carey's place. She was distinguished all right, just as Mrs. Alberts had intended. She was so unlike other girls that Carey's plain, old fashioned hens wouldn't stand for it.

They only clucked about her at first and clucked things that would have caused almost any other hen to run the straightest zigzag she knew how to her own roost. Reaping Benefit

From the Experience of Washington People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Washington residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Romulus S. Butler, 219 Harvey street, Washington, N. C., says: "I am well pleased with the results that followed the use of Dean's Kidney Pills in my case and can earnestly recommend this remedy to other persons suffering from kidney trouble. I was subject to quit pains in my back, accompanied by sharp, twinge, through my loins for some time. Dean's Kidney Pills, procured at the Washington Drug Co., removed my trouble and benefited me in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Dean's—and take no other.

AN HONEST MAN.

"An honest man is the noblest work of God," and the cynic added, "and the rarest," but, however that may be it is quite certain that Robert Parr, the special agent of the government in the sugar trust case is thoroughly an honest man.

It was he who discovered the false weighing of sugar in the docks and exposed the swindle that has stirred the public mind over the entire country. In the case now being tried Parr has given his testimony in a modest, straightforward manner that rings true in every respect.

"Name your own price," was the message he received from the trust for his silence when it was found that he had discovered the fraudulent device in the scales, but Parr held his duty and his integrity above dollars and turned a deaf ear to the offers of bribery.

YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments.

I am a Woman.
I know woman's sufferings.
I have found the cure.

I will send, free of any charge, my book containing full instructions and many facts about woman's ailments. I want to tell you about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home, without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhœa or Whites, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Ulcerations or Growths, or Tumors; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, dizzies in eye, hot flashes, weariness, kidney and bladder troubles often caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial and if you like it, you can send me $1.00, otherwise not a penny. I will also send you free of cost my 100-page illustrated book, containing explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures old and young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhœa, Green Sickness and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young ladies, Plumpness and health always results from its use.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell you of the free, honest and really natural woman's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address
