GOV. JOHN SMALL.

"Among the speakers," says the Washington Post, "Small addressed the sixth annual meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, now in session in the capital city, in Gov. John Small, of North Carolina." We did not know that our distinguished townsman had resigned an Congressional and stepped into the shoes of Gov. Kitchin.

REPAIRS DRUG STORE.

Dr. J. M. Gallagher has made efficient repairs to the interior of his drug store, which is quite an improvement.

The elevated railroads may be back in business, but they are carrying more passengers than ever before in their history. They will be a long year before New York will be able to dispense with the "temporary" aid of these unsightly tracks on stilts in taking care of its increasing passenger traffic.

When you are tempted to violate the law it is well to figure on the fact that the story of your act cannot be kept out of the newspapers.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bedwetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment with free instructions. Send no money, but write today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine discharges by day or night.

Out-of-town shoppers are hereby notified that Washington offers the best chances for Christmas shopping in the State.

Nervous Dyspepsia

If You Have It, Read This Letter.

Brown's Drug Store Guarantees It—Monsie.

"I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. He gave me medicine for that. I took his treatment four weeks, didn't feel any better at the end of four weeks than did when I commenced taking his medicine. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1908, I got a box of Monsie. I took them that afternoon and the next day and haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now. Sleep good—that is something I haven't done in a number of years." Mrs. W. E. MANN, R. F. D. 2, Ames, N. Y., June 2, 1909.

Monsie in the form of a tablet is the best preparation for indigestion.

It relieves after dinner distress, belching of gas, foul breath, heartburn, etc., by five minutes.

It is distributed by Brown's Drug Store, 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y. It is also sold by all druggists and grocers. Write for free literature to Brown's Drug Store, 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y. Enclose 10 cents for postage and a return card from the publisher.
