The Orphean Musical Club

The third number in the Lyceum course will be "The Orphean Musical Club," to appear at the public school auditorium next Tuesday evening, December 21. The company presents male quartet, brass quartet, illustrations, songs, impersonations, solos, duets, trio, chair-talks, sketches.

The Jackson Daily Whig, Jackson, Tenn., in speaking of the above attraction, says: "The Orphean Musical Club is the best quartet ever heard in Jackson, and scored repeated successes in their concert yesterday afternoon and last night. They received encore after encore, and the audience was loath to see them leave the stage."

The reserved seats will go on sale at Brown's Drug Store Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Those holding season tickets will be allowed to secure their seats first. To those not holding season tickets the price of reserved seats will be 75 cents. The general admission is 50 cents, children 25 cents.

The Gaiety showed some fine ideas last night and the Orphean was as usual something great. To-night another good Biograph melodrama will be shown and in it two women and a man illustrate that riches do not always bring happiness. There are two fine comedies which will make you laugh, and in one a slipper is the cause of all the trouble and in the other the barber will get his revenge. Save your coupons for that $5 gold piece, and you may get the turkey too next week.

WILL REMEMBER POOR.

There was a meeting of the Elks in their hall last night for the purpose of making arrangements for their annual distribution of Christmas gifts to the poor and needy of the city, which has been their custom since their organization in Washington.

Capt. Geo. T. Leach, the chairman of the committee of the order for this purpose, stated to a News representative that the meeting was a fine one and he desires to express through the columns of the Daily News his appreciation and thanks to the ladies who were present last night and showed such interest in the work. Besides the members of the Elks there were present Rev. J. A. Sullivan, Rev. H. H. Searight, Rev. Robt. Hope, Miss Rachel Rumley, Mrs. Harrave, Mrs. W. D. Woodard, Mrs. N. Harding, Miss Bettie Farver, Mrs. E. L. Dawson, and others.

It was decided to distribute the gifts to the poor on Christmas eve. A wagon will be secured and the committee will see to the distribution personally. Last year this order amounted to about $1000 cash and over $150 in kind. Such gifts as the above is a magnificent one.

North Carolina Day Friday, 17

On Friday at 2 o'clock the public will celebrate North Carolina Day at the graded school auditorium. There will be a fine program rendered by the pupils and several well known people of the city who have consented.

HARDY'S DRUG STORE, Under Hotel Louisa.

NOW SOLD IN AMERICA

In Less Than Three Years, Parisian Sage, the Splendid Hair Tonic, is Sold All Over America.

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States during the past three years. And the reason is plain to all: Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask Brown's Drug Store about it. They will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its powerful power to take the hair, unattractive hair that many women possess into lustrant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country women are all equally disappointed.

Sold everywhere, and in Washington by Brown's Drug Store for $5.

If you want a reliable remedy for croup and pneumonia the mother's joy never fails, and Goope Grease for rheumatism and all aches and pains. Praised by thousands, and if you try it you will do the same. Manufactured by the Goope Grease Liment Company. For sale by Hardy's Drug Store.

ed to lend their aid on this occasion.

First will consist of declamation and recitation by the high school pupils on the subject of Western North Carolina. Part second will be devoted to Beaufort county, and Miss Lida T. Rodman, Mr. W. H. Call, Miss Jennie Burbank and Dr. J. M. Gallagher will each read a short sketch on the history or an incident connected with this town and county. A most instructive and delightful entertainment will be enjoyed by all who attend, and the public is most cordially invited to be present.
