NO NEWS FROM THE BATTLE.

Washington, Dec. 21.—No news of any consequence from Nicaragua reached the State Department today and no reports have yet been received of the election of Madris to the presidency, or of the battle now on in the vicinity of Rama.

The consulate at Bluefields, in a telegram dated last Sunday, reports that the people in that locality recognized the fact that the election of any president by the present national assembly, undoubtedly would mean the continuance of Zelaya's domination. The same despatch states that in the event of Estrada's election as provisional president he will guarantee free elections.

EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS' TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES.

Messrs. Glendon, Johnson and Ross, of Philadelphia, are guests of President Wright. They came for a few days' recreation with dog and gun and are having a good deal of fun.

At a recent meeting of the Greenville Music Club, Miss Anne Lee Davis and Miss Bishop, teachers of music in the E. C. T. S., played and Prof. Austin sang.

Saturday evenings the young ladies and young men give themselves up wholly to social enjoyment. Sometimes there is a special program or amusement. More frequently there is a general frolic consisting of games and singing.

The Christmas spirit is in the air. Holiday is from December 23 to January 4 inclusive. The entire student body and faculty will leave and the buildings will be closed.

Each Sunday afternoon a song service is held in the Assembly Hall.

Miss Oolooah Burner, State Student Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., spent four days with us recently encouraging and assisting in this work. The social as well as instructive feature of her visit was enjoyable.

Electric lights are at last on in full blast.

Prof. C. W. Wilson recently delivered an address before the Baraca and Philathea classes of the Baptist Church in Winterville.

At the December meeting of the Pitt County Teachers' Association two members of the faculty of the E. C. T. S. were on the program:

Miss Graham read a paper on "Characteristics of the Recitation" and Prof. C. W. Wilson one on "The Indictments Against the Recitation."

POPULAR MUSIC AGAIN.

The great musical comedy, entitled "The Goddess of Liberty," now appearing at Joe Weber's Theater, has furnished New York the best music of the season of 1919-10. With its usual enterprise the New York Sunday World has obtained (through Chas. K. Harris, the music publisher) the words and music of the best song from the "Goddess of Liberty." This song, words and music complete, will be given with next Sunday's World.

WINS THE TURKEY.

Master Joseph Mayo, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mayo, held the winning ticket for the turkey at the Galey theater last night. Another turkey will be given away this evening.

Minister Cathoun ought to have the diplomatic seal on his lips broken so that he can say a few Merry Christmas messages.

To know how to write a letter is important, but to know that the only safe letter is a burnt one is still more important.
