Ever-Busy Woman.

A newspaper writer, sympathising with women because there is no longer any tradic to rock, or hardly a baby to care for, no home schooling necessary in the presence of the modern kindergarten, no sewing to 8e in this ready-made age, tittle housework in this day of flats and suites and restaurants and prepared foods, asks with concern: "What are we going to do with the woman out of a job? Let him put that question face to face to his woman acquaintances and dollars to doughnuts he will find them all so busy trying to keep up with their engagements that they won't have time to answer his foolish questions.

The Ruling Passion
His clothes said he was a tramp, but his brow was high and his manner grand. "Madam, may I request the favor of a pair of your husband's cast-off trousers? These are somewhat passe." This, with a sweep of a lattered hat, brought results in the shape of a pair of hubby's oldest, which were just about two degrees better than those, the tramp was wearing. After a critical survey of his acquisition, instead of the polite words of thanks the good woman was waiting for, the tramp volunteered, with a deep, long-frawn sigh of regret: "Madam, I see rour husband discards from weakness."—Puck.
