DOUBLING THE CORN YIELD.

Every Farmer Can Based Better Grain Says Wisconsin Authority.

It is possible to increase the yield of corn from ten to thirty bushels per acre we should all be made aware of that fact in the shortest possible time, for it takes a great difference to the farmer who is on high priced land, whether he is growing thirty-five bushels of corn per acre or sixty, says Professor R. A. Moore of the University of Wisconsin, writing in Farm and Garden.

A large portion of the advanced yield of corn in Wisconsin has been brought about by using definite select breeds of kind dried seed that has high energy and vitality. Better culture has of course contributed to the result.

We cannot emphasize too much the importance of having seed corn grown in close proximity to where it is to be used. It usually takes several years' continual growing before corn becomes thoroughly acclimated to the surrounding environment of soil and climate, and if a radical change is made the corn will deteriorate.

As far as possible every farmer after getting started with highly bred seed should grow and develop his own seed from year to year. His first efforts should be toward selecting for an ideal corn plant. He should have in his mind those special characteristics he desires to perpetuate. Such

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WASTED.

Small grains should be shocked early. Thousands of dollars are lost every year on account of poor work in shocking grain. Brace the sheaves firmly and press the heads together closely at the top. When well braced, cap to cover the grain and protect it from rains, storms and depredations of birds. See that the shocks are put up in good condition for curing.

Leprosy in England.

Leprosy is said by some to have been introduced into England by the Normans, but hospitals for lepers were in existence before the battle of Hasting. Leprosy has been practically absent from England since Elizabeth's reign. The leper windows to be seen in ancient churches still attest the grip which the disease once had on England, lepers being severely separated from the rest of the community, to a section which extended even to ecclesiastical matters. Though its ravages were greater among the poorer classes, it was not unknown among the nobility and gentry, and Robert the Bruce, victor of Bannockburn, succumbed to it in 1329.

Differences in Woods.

Timber is classed as hard or soft, and the main point of difference between the trees that produce these classes is that the soft wood tree has "medullary leaves," slim, narrow and almost uniform in breadth, while the hard wood trees have broad leaves of various shapes. Again, some soft wood trees carry cones, such as the spruce, fir, and hemlock, while the hard wood trees bear acorns, such as the oak, hickory, and chestnut. The class of soft woods belongs to the pines, spruces and firs, and the most common examples of these are yellow pine, white fir, pitch pine and spruce or red fir. In the common or hard woods are oak, beech, mahogany, ash, walnut, plane, elm, birch and ebony.

The Horse's Ear.

Whether you drive a single horse or a team the principles are the same, but in driving a pair see to it that each horse does his share of the work and no more. A pair of horses, moreover, unless well driven are sure to get in the habit of wandering over the road. To drive well you must keep your eye and your mind on the horse. Watch his ears. They will be pricked forward when he is about to shy, droop when he is tired, fly back just before he kicks. Before kicking, too, a horse usually tucks in his tail and hunches his back a little. When you observe any of these indications speak to him sharply and pull up his head.

An automobile came whizzing through a small town and bowled over a prominent resident. Among those who saw the accident and were excited by it was a young physician just beginning to practice.

"A doctor! A doctor!" he cried. "Somebody run for a physician!"

"How about yourself?" suggested an acquaintance who happened to be at the scene.

"Sure enough," said the young physician. "I never thought of that. Everybody's."

Just in Time

Some Washington People May Want This Too Late.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure this. Here is testimony to it.

Mrs. J. B. Stokes of Bath and 7th streets, Greenville, S. C. writes:

"For some time I had a very severe pain in my back and bladder, and my kidneys were weak and the passages of the secretions from these organs were very slow and painful. I also had a very sharp shooting pain in my back, and there was a constant burning in my kidneys and in the bladder intensely. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and was so much impressed that I procured a supply and began their use. They soon relieved the pain in my sides and limbs, and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. At present I am feeling better in every way. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for this great improvement."

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong and with the exception of her death, was too feeble to do anything. I failed in health, I was not able to do anything, and I did not want to go any more. I had the headache all the time. A very dear friend had done me good, and now I am well."

BAKER'S STUDIO.

THREE COMMISSIONERS.

Editor of Daily News:

I see in your paper nine candidates for county commissioners, subject to the Democratic convention to be held here, next week. I happened to be a spectator at the last county convention, and it was suggested by someone and found to be favorable that they nominate three instead of seven. However, it was postponed till the coming convention. I claim it was a good suggestion and ought to be carried out at the coming convention. I will give my reasons for being in favor of three:

Wake county has twice the population of Beaufort county; in Wake county they collected $250,000 in taxes. In Beaufort we collected about $65,000. They have only three commissioners for Wake county. If Wake county can get along with three, why can't Beaufort then? I notice for several years a majority of the commissioners are selected by certain high-up politicians; some call them "ring" leaders, and after their selections are elected to commissionerships they are tools in the hands of their selectors and usually give a majority for anything they wish the board to act upon.

I think this state of affairs has gone on long enough. Give us three commissioners like Messrs. Wolfenden, W. H. Wilkinson (of Leachville) and C. M. Brown—men who have prospered in life—men who have a will of their own, plenty of brains; men who will not have to be dictated to if they are elected. They would do the business of seven like we have had in the past, and there would be less confusion, of course. There are other good men all over the county—just as good as the above gentlemen, but I happened to think of those named, who are influential men. I wish to say that the first vote I ever cast was for Samuel J. Tilden for president of the United States. I have been a Democrat 54 years, and never have asked the party for anything except protection.

J. F. FLYNN.
 Washington, N. C.

FOR COMMISSIONER.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for county commissioner from Chocowinity township subject to the action of the primaries and county convention. My service as commissioner in the past should be endorsement enough for the people. If honored with the office I shall endeavor to do what I think right and best for the people.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.
 To the Democrats of Beaufort County. Greetings:

It is very gratifying to me to know that so many of my friends are anxious that I would stand for re-election to the Legislature of North Carolina. I extend to you my heartfelt appreciation for the favors and honor already conferred and I now adopt the medium of the press through which to say to you that if my services in the General Assembly of North Carolina, Session 1909, meet your approval, and if you believe that fidelity and devotion to duty will be maintained and you desire that I should be one of your representatives in the coming 1911 session, then you may have the privilege of presenting my name for that purpose before the several Democratic primaries to be held in our county, 5th and 6th of August. And in the meantime I desire to remain, faithfully yours,

FOR COMMISSIONER.
 To the Democratic Voters of Beaufort County:

I desire to place before you, for re-nomination, for the office of County Commissioner the name of Mr. F. H. Vonerstein, taking in consideration Mr. Eberstein's good Business Qualifications, and also the fact that he has considerable experience in handling the affairs of the county. I feel that he is in position to serve the people as well as if not better than any other Man on the South Side of the River.

J. E. TURNAGE.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
 Mr. Editor:—I have been asked by many if I would serve as county commissioner again? Allow me to say if I am honored with the election I will discharge my duty to the best of my ability. Thanking my friends for past favors, we await your pleasure.

FOR SHERIFF.
 Two years ago I entered the contest for the nomination of Sheriff of Beaufort county. I found, at that time, that there were many in the county who felt that the present incumbent, Mr. Hicks, should have another term, making him in all about five years in that office. I was advised by my friends, also many who were supporting Mr. Hicks, to withdraw from the contest at that time, they all assuring me of their entire support two years hence, or at the present time, in view of which I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Beaufort county, subject to the Democratic primaries and convention to be held for the nomination of county officers.

My policy is two terms for all county officers.

Trusting that I may receive your support, I am, very respectfully,

JAS. H. HARRIS.

FOR SHERIFF.
 To the Democrats of Beaufort county:

I take this method of thanking you for your loyal support in the past and to ask a continuance of the same in the coming primaries in renominating me for the office of Sheriff of Beaufort county. If I have served you well and given satisfaction, I feel sure that I can give you even better service in the future; as the records show an improvement each year, the insolvent list for 1909 being less than 2 1/4 per cent. I have worked for the best interest of the county at all times, and if renominated I will give you the best service I can, and at all times try to improve. Thanking you in advance I remain very respectfully,

Your servant,
