NEWSPAPER THE MEDIUM

Is the many who OUGHT to buy your property hard to find? Have you about concluded that he has placard blindness? Or perhaps it occurs to you that a window placard has, after all rather a LIMITED CIRCULATION, and is therefore a poor thing to rely upon IF YOU REALLY WANT TO SELL! Buyers, you see, have a theory that real estate that is of any importance, or that is DESIRABLE, IS SURE to be advertised in the newspaper when the owner wants to sell it.

ANOTHER VITAGRAPH AT THE GAIETY THEATRE

One of the Best All-Round Programs Yet. Tonight—All New Music and Songs by the Blind Boys.

Tonight there will be three full reels of pictures presented, and new songs and music by the Blind Boys at the Gaiety that will, without question, prove to be one of the best all-round programs shown here in some time—as the pictures are somewhat different from the usual run of the one's exhibited here lately—and a complete change of music by the Blind Boys rendered all through the program.

"A Boarding School Romance" (Vitagraph) Love Drama. It's a genuine Vitagraph story told in the inimitable Vitagraph Way.

"The Barry Sisters"—The clever acrobatic feats done by these clever little performers will certainly amuse you and keep you well entertained.

"The Bone Settler's Daughter" is a beautiful little drama by the famous Pathe Freres Stock Co.

This entire program is one that will certainly be appreciated. So don't fail to visit the Gaiety tonight.

Last Round.

Rev. A. McCullan, presiding Elder of the Washington district, is now making his last round on the district, prior to the meeting of the annual conference at Elizabeth City.

This year closes his administration on the district and he will be assigned to some other field by Bishop Hendricks at that time.

Mr. McCullan has proven to be one of the most popular and efficient presiding elders Washington has ever had, and that he is compelled to sever his connection with it is to be regretted by all members of that denomination.

OLD HICKORY CHIPS.

The farm vote is more apt to vote as it reaps than as it sows.

It can be definitely stated today that Colonel Roosevelt will be a candidate for President in 1912, but will faintly support Mr. Taft for the nomination.

Rumor hath it that President Taft's favorite quotation is "the world is out of joint. Oh, cursed spite, that I was ever born to set it right!"

Some time Mr. Taft must fancy that it was all a dream; that "Teddy, the Terrible" is still on the job.

An old man was arrested at Beverly the other day on confession that he had a plan for the reorganization of the G.O.P. Maybe that's what will become of the Colonel in the end.

Evidently it is as hard to get an "undesirable" out of the Cabinet as it is to get one into the penitentiary.

The theory that people eat too much often has been expolited, but never proved. Perhaps some of the world, if they had the chance, but a benign protective tariff safeguards them.

A man who can be good-natured at breakfast is very likely to go to heaven when he dies.

No matter how easy it is for a man to make money, there always seems to be somebody else for whom it is easier to get away from him—

Alfred Austin has written another poem. It may be that Alfred did it from pure spite.

Scientists have discovered a manuscript in an entirely new language. Maybe some duk tried to spring Esperanto on the public three or four thousand years ago.

Conventions would be more interesting if Colonel Roosevelt could be persuaded to contribute some of the red-hot messages he used to send to congress.

The Democrats and the Insurgents have discovered that the old saw, "Politics makes strange bedfellows" is a surprisingly accurate observation.

There are fears that Mr. Longworth was so intent on keeping his car on the ground that his foot slipped.

Mr. Champ Clark is no longer a rainbow chaser. He sits down and waits for the rainbow to come his way.

An investigation frequently develops a variety of reports to meet all shades of popular taste.

A sentiment is growing in Europe to the effect that Russia should be compelled to exercise the same rigorous vigilance over its cholera germs that it bestows on its population.

Possibly the attack at Sagamore Hill is being rummaged for one of those things that it is difficult to understand.

There is always the right kind of weather in some parts of the United States according to the weather map.

Eggs are selling for $2 per dozen in Alaska and they are cold storage eggs at that.

Senator Gore's championship of the Indiana may look like the blind leading the blind; but it seems to be effective nevertheless.

The market reports from Elgin say "butter is stronger." That is why it is able to lift itself higher.

A South American prominence thinks his section of the earth ought to go in extensively for wheat raising. Raising wheat beats raising Cain.
