

They Met

Yesterday

The executive missionary committee of the diocese of East Carolina met at St. Peter's rectory in this city yesterday afternoon. The members present were Rev. Messrs. C. F. Smith, of Elizabeth City, Thos. F. Noe, of Wilmington, and John H. Griffith, Jr., of Kinston, and Mr. Jno. G. Bragaw, Jr., of Washington. With the committee met Rt. Rev. Robert Strange D. D., Bishop of East Carolina and Rev. Nathaniel Harding, two of the lay members of the committee. Messrs. Wilson G. Lamb, of Williamston, and William Dunn, Jr., of New Bern, were absent.

The main purpose of the meeting was to arrange an itinerary for Rev. Jno. R. Matthews, who is to spend six months in East Carolina, beginning January 1st, holding Missions of one week each at twenty-five points within the diocese.

Mr. Matthews is a preacher of exceptional force and ability, and the committee feel that a decided step forward has been taken in securing his services for such a length of time. The itinerary will be published in due time in the regular way.

The next regular meeting of the committee will probably be held in St. John's Parish, Fayetteville. Just before the council convenes.

Adjourned Yesterday.

The county board of commissioners met in special session at the court house yesterday. They were in session only part of the day. The present board will be in session only one more time before the new board elected at the recent election takes office.

Next Three Weeks.

We are going to make effort to get up for the Christmas Holidays, the finest display of pictures for our windows ever seen in Washington and I liked to have said anywhere else. But wait to see them before you pass your judgment.

BAKER'S STUDIO.

Will Meet Tonight.

The Tar Heel Motor Boat Club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the office of Dr. Rodman, to compete the arrangements for their races on Thursday. A full attendance is desired.

HOMES WANTED

There are four children that can be placed in nice homes. Two are girls, ages four and six, respectively, and two are boys, ages eight and ten years. They are bright, robust children, and a good family, but simply unfortunate. Responsible parties desiring one or more of them may address "E. C." Daily News Office. All correspondence will be treated strictly confidential.

Sent Back.

Dempie Sprull who ran away from the county home in Washington county some weeks ago and was finally located and placed in the Beaufort county home for safe keeping, was sent by the keeper of the home back to Washington county this morning.

A Knack

"Why is it," asked the ambitious young orator, complaining to the editor of the morning paper, "that you always report me as having said, among other things?"

"Well, as I understand it, you are usually among other things when you say them."

PREVENTIVE TREATMENT FOR OAT AND WHEAT SMUT.

Bulletin 212 of the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station by Dr. F. L. Stevens which has just appeared from the press gives full directions for preventing the various smuts of oats and wheat. These are due to little living parasitic plants which grow within the wheat and oat plants. They cause large loss, cutting down yield of grain often as much as 20 per cent or over 30 per cent, while the stinking smut of wheat does much greater damage by injuring the milling quality of the grain.

The formal treatment which is thoroughly effective and costs almost nothing, is described and recommended for oat smut. The same treatment is even more effective than the ordinary blue-stone treatment for the stinking smut in wheat.

The loose smut of wheat can be prevented by a modified hot water treatment coupled with separate growth of seed in a protected seed plot.

Directed C. B. Williams, West Raleigh, N. C. states that these diseases cause thousands upon thousands of dollars of loss every year to the oat and wheat crops of the state and that this bulletin was prepared especially to give farmers at this time the latest and most effective means of combating these diseases. He states that a copy of this bulletin may be secured by any resident of North Carolina free of cost upon application to him.

SKIN AFFECTIONS

WHETHER ON INFANT OR GROWN PERSON CURED BY ZEMO AND ZEMO SOAP.

AN UNUSUAL OFFER
The Hardy Drug Co., says to every person, be it man, woman or child, who has an irritated, tender or itching skin to come to our store and procure a bottle of ZEMO and a cake of ZEMO Soap and if you are not entirely satisfied with results, come back and get your money. So confident are we of the efficacy of this clean, simple treatment, that we make you this unusual offer.

ZEMO is a clear liquid for external uses that has cured so many cases of eczema, pimples, dandruff and other forms of skin eruption. ZEMO and ZEMO soap are the most economical as well as the cleanest and most effective treatment for affections of the skin or scalp, whether on infant or grown person.

FOR FEVERISHNESS AND ACHING.
Whether from malarious conditions, colds or over-heating, try Hick's Capudine. It reduces the fever and relieves the aching. It is liquid— $\sqrt{25}$ and 50 cents at drug stores.

If you could have what you wanted would you want it?

Woodrow Wilson's Service.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Woodrow Wilson appears to have discovered and applied to his use in the New Jersey campaign, a new and improved method of campaigning.

If it were generally established the tone of public life would be improved, and both candidates and electorate would be dignified.

His method is one of unflinching courtesy and unimpeachable good humor. It was wholly devoid of irascibility and egotism. It was based on his general proposition laid down at the beginning of the canvass, that he would avoid senseless abuse of man or institutions, but rather seek the evils where they existed and find the remedy that might most efficaciously be applied.

Throughout the campaign he was natural, direct, and convincing; because he was evidently sincere. He never stopped to base insinuations, and he never attacked his opponents in an unworthy manner. At the end of the campaign he could, without shame, look any man of the opposition in the eye and shake him by the hand.

Having maintained these manly and decent personal relations with all men, he could give his attention to the issues at stake. This he did with so much success that the people of New Jersey have thought more of important things than they have done since the civil war, and they also know more about them.

From these premises it is perhaps safe to draw the conclusion that the way to lift up politics is to secure the services of the men who are capable of giving a lift.

Mother's Wages.

The census man has been around And all our names and ages found, And whether we can read and write And if we're yellow, black or white.

He asked our parents' native tongue, What tongue they spoke, and wrote it down!

And last, he said he was to ask Each one to name his daily task.

John is a lawyer—plain as day, And Bridget, an employe; Teh children students are, all three, And then the question came to me.

"I kiss to make hurt fingers well, Hear prayers, and bed-time stories tell; I sew and dust, make beds and brew, What shall you write down that I do?"

"Do you receive a wage?" he said, "Of love," quoth I. He shook his head, "Love does not count with Uncle Sam. You have no occupation, ma'am."

But, if mothers should combine To get all they are worth, Their wage in love would bankrupt heaven; In money bankrupt earth.

Many a man heads a long funeral procession who never had much of a following in life.

Exciting Racing.

Thursday is Corn Judging Day in Washington and the citizens not only of Washington but surrounding country are looking forward to the day. It promises to be the arms, so far agricultural exhibits are concerned, ever pulled off in this county.

The committee on arrangements are working hard to make the day a success and unless something unforeseen happens they will exceed beyond expectations of the most sanguine.

One of the features of the day will be a race between Captain Hill's motor boat, the "Red Wing" and the "Unknown," owned by C. H. Fuller. This race comes off in the afternoon and will start from the county bridge, around the Chocowinity light buoy and home. The other races will start from the county bridge and run around the buoy off Rodman's creek and home. The Tar Heel Motor Boat Club is planning a most exciting and interesting meet and it will no doubt be witnessed by a large number. Thursday bids fair to be a gala one for Washington and Beaufort county.

Will Make Profit

The state penitentiary farms will this year produce 1,200 bales of cotton valued at about $90,000. Besides this there are bumper crops of corn, peas, potatoes, and other products.

It is gratifying to know that the penitentiary farms are self-sustaining and will this year make a net profit of $110,000 for the state.

The republicans and populists in fusion days piled up a debt of $100,000 against the penitentiary. Democrats are different and that is the reason the people decided by a big majority to keep a competent administration in charge of the affairs of their state—Wilmington Star.

FOR HEADACHE—Hick's Capudine.

Whether from Colds, Heat, Stomach or Nervous Troubles, Capudine will relieve you. It's liquid—pleasant to take—acts immediately. Try it—10, 25 and 50c. at drug stores.

As a general thing when a girl wants a new dress she goes to the store to see what she can buy. She goes in and she sees a dress that she likes. She goes to the counter and she says to the clerk, "I want to buy that dress."

The clerk says, "That dress is $10.00."

The girl says, "That's too expensive. I can't buy it."

The clerk says, "That's all right. I'll show you another dress."

The girl says, "That's all right. I'll take that dress."

The clerk says, "That dress is $10.00."

Ladies' Rights

Space will be provided for a ladies' exhibit at the Washington Washington Corn Show Day. Any lady desiring to make an exhibit can have the opportunity of doing so. There will be no premiums awarded to them.

Corn Judging Day is destined to be attended by a great number of people and the fact that the committee have decided to allow the ladies space to make exhibits will no doubt add considerably to the attractiveness and interest of the day.

After a girl finds herself engaged to a man she begins to realize that there are others.

Handicapped

This is the Case With Many Washington People.

Too many Washington citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

The following statement should convince every Washington reader of their efficiency.

Joseph Savage, Church St., Tarboro, N. C., says: "For some time my kidneys were disordered, the passages of the kidney secretions being scanty and at times painful. I had sharp pains in my loins and if I stooped suddenly, sharp twinges caught me across the back, making it hard for me to straighten. After taking a number of remedies without finding relief, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and began their use. They removed the aches and pains and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions. I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the benefit I have derived from their use."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Monster Pie.

It is on record that in the reign of George III. of England the Earl of Lonsdale sent his king a pie that weighed 576 pounds. In the preparation of this pie there were used nine geese, six ducks, four fowls, six pigeons, two turkeys, three hens, two chickens, two guinea fowls, fifteen woodcock, two water hens, one wild goose, one curlew, forty yellow hamlets, fifteen sparrows, thirteen chaffinches, two larks, four thrushes, one leg of mutton, one ham, three heads of beef and thirty pounds of butter.

Undesirable Citizens.

An American who spends much of his time in England tells of a cockney who went to a dealer in dogs and then described what he wanted:

"I'll want a kind of dog about as high as my nose. It's a kind of greyhound, but you'll see it's a greyhound, because it's shorter than any of the others."

The dealer said, "That's all right. I'll show you one."

The American said, "That's all right. I'll take that dog."

The dealer said, "That dog is $10.00."

The American said, "That's too expensive. I can't buy it."

The dealer said, "That's all right. I'll show you another dog."

The American said, "That's all right. I'll take that dog."
