

Mr. Miller Dead

One of Aurora's highly esteemed citizens in the person of Mr. Bryan W. Miller passed away last night at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Miller was in his 62 year and leaves a widow and two children. No man in that community possessed a wider circle of friends. He was ever in the forefront for his church and the up-building of his community.

For years he occupied the responsible position of Justice of the Peace. In this office he was fair and just, as he was in every trust committed unto him.

About two weeks ago gangrene developed in one of his limbs and the sequence was it had to be amputated with the hope that the operation would prolong his life. While he rallied from this trying ordeal the disease had gotten control of his entire body and he fell on sleep last night surrounded by loved ones and friends. Besides a broken-hearted widow and crushed children he leaves four brothers Messrs. I. W. Addison, John and J. E. Miller.

Not only was the deceased a consistent member of the Methodist church but also was a member in good standing of the Odd Fellows and Charitable Brotherhood. The entire town of Aurora mourns today the going of this popular citizen.

The funeral was held from the late residence this afternoon by Rev. C. R. Canipe.

The services at the grave were in charge of the Odd Fellows. The Charitable Brotherhood also attended in a body. The Daily News extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Charlotte Cushman's Warning.
One day night Charlotte Cushman and Lawrence Barrett came out of the theater together. The steps were dangerously slippery, and it was with difficulty that they kept their feet at all. As they tottering descended the great actress said to her companion quite in her Lady Macbeth manner: "Take a good grip on my arm, Lawrence, and if I slip hold on like grim death. But if you slip in the name of heaven let go."

Bad Manners.

The two women stopped in front of a dentist's showcase.
"There, mamma," said the younger woman, pointing, "I want a set just like that."
"Hush, my child," commanded her mother. "Don't you know that it's vulgar to pick your teeth in the street?"

A Bright Youth.

"She (archly)—Whom should you call the prettiest girl in the room?" He (looking about him)—"I'm! Well, to tell the truth, there isn't a pretty girl in the place."

Some will always be above others. Destroy the inequality of today and it will appear again tomorrow.—Emerson.

Letter Perfect.

"Now," bawled the prompter to the leader of the supers at the dress rehearsal of that stirring Roman drama "Right Versus Might." "are you all right with the cue?"

The super leader nodded confidently. "As a trivet," he responded. "When the man in the sheet hollers 'Katy Field' we get ready, an' when 'e sings out 'Rum an' crackers'—"
"Great Christopher!" roared the demoted prompter. "You mean 'Calfif, yield!' idiot, and 'Home and Gracchus!'"

"Jesse, sir," nodded the leader calmly. "Well, when 'e sez wot you sez 'e sez we're to go for the chap in the brass waist."—London Answers.

They Commenced.

An Irishman on being made foreman of a gang of laborers wished to show his authority to those under him on the first morning of his promotion.

"Now, look here, boys," said he, "when I say commence, you have all to commence, and them that don't commence when I say commence won't commence. So commence."—London Standard.

CULTURE.

The secret of culture is to learn that a few great points steadily reappear alike in the poverty of the obscurest farm and in the miscellany of metropolitan life and that these few alone are to be regarded—the escape from all false ties, courage to be what we are and love of what is simple and beautiful. Independence and cheerful relation, these are the essentials—these and the wish to serve, to add somewhat to the well being of men.—Emerson.

Different Sort Next Time.

"Yes. He was all broken up at first, but now he's cheerful again. It's given him a chance to try a wife who can cook."—Detroit Free Press.

Wanderhose School Days Bring Many Problems

You owe it to your children to see that they are well dressed and comfortable. How can it be done on the least money? Stockings have been the greatest trouble. You know the kind that look well until the first recess. If your boy is the right kind of boy, he plays so fast he forgets all about his stockings. To grow he must play that way. Give him the kind of stockings that take care of themselves—

Wanderhose

Leap frog, hop scotch, foot ball, and many other games need have no terrors for the mother who has bought her son Wanderhose. Let him scuffle, slide, jump all over the play ground—on stairs, on holes, on snow. These wonderful stockings are made from Wanderhose wool with Wanderhose elastic. They are made from the finest wool and are so strong and elastic that they will last through the season. Only double thickness of Wanderhose elastic runs through the heel and toe. The heel and toe are so strong and elastic that the strength of the stockings does not depend on the thickness. That is one of the reasons why the heel and toe of Wanderhose are so soft and pliable and yet so strong. In the meantime the mother buys her children with their heads when other mothers are staring with the dancing wanders.

SHOPPING AT HOME!

The most clever and progressive women have learned the immense advantage of carefully reading the advertisements.

Those who are more dull of apprehension prefer to wander around in different stores hunting for the special bargains and usually attractive articles.

The up-to-date woman of today sits down and takes her paper and reads the advertisements carefully before she goes "shopping"

She has learned by experience that the merchant who is up-to-date in his methods and has the most desirable offerings, is the one which makes his influence felt through his advertising.

If he did not do this he would not be an up-to-date merchant.

The back number merchant does not advertise.

Shopping at home, looking through the ads before you start out, saves time and annoyance and is sure to result in both economy and satisfaction.

It pays to read the advertisements.
