WITH LOCKED CHAINS

TIED NEWLY-WEDS

Took Mechanic an Hour to Release Them in Train After They'd Ridden on Hay Wagon

Seaford, Del., June 10.—Hauled about the town in a hay wagon and showered confetti upon them, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Clark Jr., who were married at high noon in the Bridgeville Methodist Episcopal Church, were carried to the depot only to meet the climax of pranks.

Just as the train was coming in the crowd sang "Blest be the tie that binds" and bound the couple tightly together with heavy timber chains. These were secured with a large padlock and the key thrown away. Unable to free themselves from the predicament, the newly weds were carried into the Pullman and were obliged to occupy one chair.

Hundreds of friends who had come from all parts of Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania to witness the affair were in it to the last and the serenade was one of the most strenuous imaginable, the bride being nearly at the point of collapsing when carried on the train.

A despatch received from Wilmington states that the tie was strong and the honeymoon was delayed for over an hour in that city in order to have the "binds" broken by a mechanic.

BASEBALL NOTES

Vixen Proved a Miscal
A year in Oxfordshire, England, who dressed so carelessly that he might have been mistaken for a tramp, and who was supposed to have died penniless, was found to have left a fortune of many thousands of pounds invested in London property.

Cultivate Self-Reliance
To be self-reliant is to look to one's self for help in all the affairs of life, not to be forever leaning upon those about you. There is great satisfaction in feeling that you have the ability to do for yourself.—Clara K. Bayless.

A Delaware poultry raiser says that during 1911 his 325 hens laid $4,500 eggs. What is he ever going to do with all the money?

It does not speak well for Wilkes that the man who had a plentiful supply of money to spend had to go away from home to spend it.

Christy Mathewson was set back five shiners by the umpire in a recent game, for discoloring the ball. They say it was "Matty's" first fine.

That "$22,500 pitching" is fine gravy, but it will have to have some help before the Pirates are able to split worlds serie's money.

The University of Vermont baseball team has a crackerjack pitcher in Jake Malcolm. The chances are that Connie Mack has a scout trailing the collegian right now.

It is said that Pitcher "Wild Bill" Donovan, of the Detroit Tigers, will give up active baseball after this season and become a manager of some minor league club.

"Kid" Gleason is given a great share of the credit for the work of the White Sox. The ancient Quaker has been a big success as coach and foreman of the ginger works.

The Jersey City team is the sensation of the International League, and the I. L. team will have to start pretty soon if they expect to hold the steppers back with the bunch.

Almeida, the Cuban player released by the Reds to the Birmingham Southern League team, says he would rather be a regular with the minors than warm the bench in the big show.

The circuit of the recently organized New York-Connecticut League will be composed of Danbury, Conn., and Middletown, Newburgh, Kingston, Peekskill and Port Jervis, New York.

Nothing to that story to the effect that Manager Johnny Kling, of the Boston Braves, is to get the gate. It would cost the Boston Braves a bunch of money to flag John as he has a three-year contract.

In a recent game in Washington both Ed Walsh, of the White Sox, and Walter Johnson, of the Nationals, were knocked out of the box. It isn't often that the batters are able to drive two stars to the shed.

WITH THE BOXES

Ad Volzart wants $12,000 to box Leach Cross, or $15,000 for a go with Packey McFarland.

Jim Corbett has taken Bobby Waugh under his wing and will act as manager for the Texas Light weight.

Women That Need Rest.
It is not the women who work who need rest cures, but those who are worn out doing nothing, and doing it badly.

Very Emotionless.
"Ever see one of these barefoot dancers? Their steps are symbolic; every step means something." "I saw one of 'em land on a tack one night. Her steps were full of meaning for the next few minutes."

The reindeer of Alaska are looked to as a future meat supply for this country—if they can be overtaken.

A hundred and fifty fine diamonds were found in an ash barrel in Philadelphia the other day. Takes your sap.

An effort is being made to establish a new alphabet. Even at that, it's as good a way to kill time as playing solitaire.

The old-fashioned characteristics of woman seem to be changing. One of them has been sent to jail for refusing to talk.

"Boston is lacking in religion," says Dr. Abbot, but why should the Bostonians care as long as they have plenty of beans and coffee?

Won't you come and live near us down the river shore? 'Tis really so delightful, enchanting, yes and more. 'Twill give you rest and comfort and much improve your health.—That's vastly more important than a little of your wealth.

SPORTS

Chicago lawyer is responsible for the startling statement that a man will be on the safe side if he obeys the sea commandments. Another follows.

The queen of Siam breaks into pet with the story that she has been robbed of her jewels. We never knew there was a ransaville circuit in Siam.

One of the men who broke the Monte Carlo bank "has been arrested on a charge of fraud. Maybe he split the wheat when the cropster wasn't looking.

"A New Yorker was arrested for dropping money away on the streets. Don't be deceived; undoubtedly he was merely trying to entice suckers from the provinces.

Government investigators are trying to find out what hush is, but a respectable family newspaper would not dare to print what the average boarder thinks of it.

New York, we are told, has a murder every thirty-six hours. And yet certain persons would have us believe that baseball is the most popular pastime in that city.

The Turkish fleet has been destroyed again. Either the war correspondents are afflicted with frenzied imagination or the Turkish fleet has a faculty of unscrambling itself.

One of Austria's archduchesses was hurt the other day when a sled on which she was coasting struck a tree. The offender sailing will doubtless be cut down for less majesty.

Out last night's headlines are narrow. The missing? Hike Copeland's tax, the thing to fit you for business. Try R. At. drug stores.
