TRAINING SCHOOL STATISTICS ARE VERY ENCOURAGING

PAST YEAR'S WORK SHOWS RAPID GROWTH

Wisdom of the Foundation of This Institution is Now Assured.

(BY B. J. WEICHAARD)
GREENVILLE, N. C., Aug. 5.—Those who take pride in the career and progress of East Carolina Teachers' Training School will be interested in some points from the session just closed. With this purpose in view your correspondent visited the school today to get some data on the work of the past year. He found that the enrollment of the regular term had reached 235 and of the summer term 359, making a total enrollment for the year 594. In addition to these, there were 286 more applications for admission than the school accommodates. Through the kindness of the people of Greenville in opening their homes to students, about one hundred of these excess applicants found places to board outside of the school and thus were enabled to take advantage of the course but this still left 168 who could not be admitted through lack of accommodations.

Fully a month before the summer term began the applications had reached the capacity of the school, and from then on letters had to be sent advising that there was no more room. Could all who applied for admission, to this term have been taken the enrollment would have reached 760, not to mention others who would have applied but for the information being sent out that the capacity of the school had been filled. The attendance, this year was much larger than last year, and more than twice as many teachers remained through to the end of the term than remained last year, the number standing the final examination being 163.

Another remarkable thing about the summer term this year, is the earnestness with which the teachers took up and pursued their work. Even with no large attendance, necessitating much work in registering and classifying, they were ready to take up the regular routine of class duties on the second day. And they did straight clear-cut work all through the term, seeming determined to take advantage of every possible opportunity to equip themselves for better teaching. Only once during the term was there a real relaxation from work and giving over entirely to pleasure, and that was on last Saturday night when the faculty gave the student body an informal reception that all entered into heartily and made a most delightful occasion. All during the term faculty and students alike devoted the time to most serious work with a view of making every day count for the best.

This term of the school has more fully than ever demonstrated the fine ability of President R. H. Wright, and shown the wisdom in selecting him for the head of this institution. He selected every member of the faculty with the utmost care to their special fitness for the work in hand, and the arrangement of classes and courses of study were with an eye single to procuring the most efficiency. The harmony and smoothness with which everything moved along showed his splendid leadership. Besides keeping his hand constantly on the pulse of the school, Mr. Wright had much outside work to do, being called for two visits of two weeks each to Washington City where in the Bureau of Education he prepared a national bulletin on teacher training for the county schools. This recognition of Mr. Wright's ability by the United States Commissioner of Education and those associated with him in the education work of the government, shows the treasure that East Carolina Teachers' Training School has in him at its head.

One has but to look over the list of the faculty at this summer term of the school and the departments they were in charge of to be convinced that no school in the country had a superior array of talent and ability. These were:
Prof. J. B. Austin, Science.
Prof. C. W. Wilson, Pedagogy.
Prof. L. B. McQueen, English.
Prof. W. M. McQueen, School Management.
Prof. David D. Funch, History.

In Connection With Danish-American National Park to Be Presented.

Special to the Daily News.
COPENHAGEN, Aug. 5.—Interesting exercises to mark the formal presentation of "The Danish-American National Park" were held today in the city hall of Copenhagen. The park itself is located at Rebild Hills, in the province of Aalborg. It was purchased with contributions from Danish-Americans in all parts of the United States and presented to the Danish nation with the object of preserving in its natural beauty a tract of land from all ages to come as a proof of the love of emigrated Danes for their mother country. One of the stipulations of the gift is that the Stars and Stripes shall be displayed in the park on all of the American holidays.

The address of presentation was made by Dr. Max Henius of New York and the gift was accepted in behalf of the nation by the Danish Secretary of State. The other speakers at the exercises included Dr. Morris F. Egan, the United States minister at Copenhagen, and Count Moltke the Danish minister to the United States.

LOCAL SPORTS PROVE FIRST CLASS ANGLERS

Messrs S. R. Clary, the popular agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, the city, Capt. G. S. Whitchard, of the Washington and Vandremer passenger train and Messrs J. K. Whitchard and Charles Flowers, have so far carried off the prize for angling in the waters of Bay River and Pamlico Sound this season. It does not require these expert fishermen but a few hours to demonstrate their charm as anglers if their catch of Friday last is a criterion. Before the time for the train to leave Vandemere Friday last they tried their luck and came to Washington bringing with them over seventy-five of the choicest kind of trout, blue fish, etc. Mr. R. Lee Stewart who held the prize to this feat is now actively making preparations to wrest the prize from his old time competitors.

STATE ENGINEER VISITS THE CITY WATER PLANT

Mr. W. H. Booker, sanitary engineer and assistant to Secretary W. S. Rankin, of the State Board of Health, visited this city Saturday last and made a thorough examination of the water plant. The water company is actively engaged in placing their plant in first class shape and are endeavoring in every way possible to carry out the suggestions as made by Mr. Booker. The company is doing everything to make the water supply wholesome and sanitary.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 5.—A dozen names are under discussion for the head of the ticket to be nominated by the Indiana Republicans in State convention here tomorrow. As the Republican candidates must meet the opposition of the Progressives as well as the Democrats at the November election the party leaders are endeavoring to bring about the nomination of the strongest men they can find.

Winfield T. Harris, of Indianapolis, former United States minister to Austria-Hungary; Col. George R. Lockwood, editor of the Marion Chronicle; Judge David W. Henry of Terre Haute, President W. W. Parsons of the Indiana Normal School, Charles A. Carlisle, a prominent business man of South Bend; James W. Emison, president of Vincennes University, Walter Olds of Ft. Wayne and L. C. Embree of Princeton are among those who are under consideration for the nomination for governor.

For Lieutenant governor Sidney K. Ganiard, of Lagrange, is regarded as the leading candidate; although there are several others in the field. For the other places on the State ticket there is a general disposition to give the nominations to the men who were the nominees two years ago.

O! WON'T THERE BE SOBS?

(BY BRUTHER FOX)
There is a little county Called Sacrifice Town; And there's where they're kickin' My houn' dawg aroun'.
It was two years ago. The people, they said, There'd have to be a change Or they'd kick up Ned!
The old officials had Been in, long enough To kindly give way to A new sort of stuff.
And when they'd had two terms, That out they should go, That's what the people said, Just two years ago.
The servants got too fat A-feeding on fees; So they should be sal'ried; These were the decrees.
So Statesman and Upstart Both were elected As legislators and Then 't was expected.
To name out the sal'ries Right down to a T And allow none enough To get one a spree.
Said Statesman to Upstart, Now lest one forgets, 'Tis in Sacrifice Town We have a few pets.
For we must take care of These old boys, you know; It will never quite do To put 'em too low.
For one of 'em told me He needed a pile Big enough to live in The best sort of style.
So Billy, the Sheriff, A boy very dear, Should have the amount of Four thousand a year.
On top of four thousand He should have some fees To get a few extras, Whenever he please.
So that he when thrifty, Might go at his will To the cool drink counter, And take in a fill.
And then in addition He'd need a few dollars To keep him in neckties, And plenty of collars.
And Sammy, the courtous, Register of Deeds, He got plenty 'nough for His primary needs.
And then about a mile... To keep him a living Without gettin' s'ry.

VANCEBORO POSTMASTER SHOTS HIS ANTAGONIST SIX TIMES

Oklahoma Primaries Tuesday

Special to the Daily News.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 5.—On United States senator, eight congressmen (under new apportionment), a State corporation commissioner, justices of the supreme court and the criminal court of appeals and the members of the 1913 legislature are to be nominated in the Oklahoma primaries tomorrow.

The most interest, of course, centers in the contest for the United States senatorship. The senatorial vote is not a direct nomination, but it is an expression of preference supposed to bind the legislature which next winter will name a successor to Robert L. Owen, who is a candidate for re-election.

Former Governor Charles N. Haskell is opposing Senator Owen for the Democratic nomination for the senatorship. The fight between the two was commenced as early as last December and has been extremely bitter.

Five Republicans are contesting for the Republican indorsement for the senatorship. Among them is "Dynamite Ed" Perry of Colgate, who is regarded as the leader of the Roosevelt faction of the Republican party in Oklahoma.

All of the five representatives who now make up the Oklahoma delegation in the lower branch of Congress are candidates for renomination. The three new representatives are to be elected as congressmen-at-large, because of the failure of the legislature to redistrict the State. For the three seats there are a total of forty-four aspirants, including twenty-eight Democrats, thirteen Republicans and three Socialists.

Republican leaders of both factions are inclined to bury their differences so far as the State campaign is concerned, in the hope that they may be able to elect a majority in one if not both houses of the State legislature. Both factions are eager to wrest the States from local control of the Democrats, believing this year home affairs are of more importance than getting into a factional fight over national matters that would be helpful to neither Taft or Roosevelt, inasmuch as Oklahoma's electoral vote is practically certain to go to the Democratic presidential nominee.

After being struck to the ground Mr. Edwards pulled his revolver and shot Mr. Warren in six different places. The balls entered his body in the breast, and abdomen. He was brought to the Washington Hospital yesterday where an operation was performed. All the balls were found and removed.
