MANY PRESENT AT LECTURE

Rev. Sidney Love is for legislation along new line. Law to aid Prisoner's Wives.

Those who heard the lecture of Rev. Sidney Love, secretary of the North Carolina Prisoners' Aid Society, at the court house yesterday afternoon, went out with a good deal of food for thought.

There was nothing of the spectacular or gush to appeal to the emotions, but he shot out facts that appealed to reason, to heart, to soul and to decency. He showed himself a diplomat. He did not mince matters, and though he must have driven some shafts into some in the audience, the justice of his position was so clear that none could take offense. At the close of his lecture he had the entire audience with him. That is they said they were, whether they were or not, for all in the large audience stood up on his proposition, and no one failed to arise in the negative when an opportunity was given.

The subject of Mr. Love's address was "The Daughter That Thou Gavest Me." In the course of his lecture he gave some incidents in the life of a wayward girl in this State. Man's part in the destruction of the lives of girls was portrayed. In this connection he pictured the human vulture in quest of victims. The need of legislation against this moral byers or moral scourge, was emphasized. At present the law is directed solely against the woman for certain moral transgressions, whereas the lecturer thought that the law should make each equally guilty. In fact he placed the greater responsibility upon man. One of the objects of the lecture was to create sentiment for the enactment of legislation which will make man as amenable to the law as woman. The court house was practically full.

Another matter the lecturer pre-

COMPLETE EVIDENCE OF ARMENIAN SLAUGHTER

Committee, Formed to Make Report, Makes Public Atrocities That Have Been Committed.

New York, Oct. 4.—Documentary evidence of the atrocities inflicted by the Turks upon the Armenians was made public last night by the committee formed by Charles R. Crane, Cleveland H. Dodge and others to investigate the facts of the Armenian massacres and which also have been taking steps to aid sufferers.

The committee states that the evidence was collected from sources that are unquestioned as to the veracity and authority of the writers, but that for obvious reasons their names cannot be given and in most cases names of towns and cities must be concealed.

Quotations are given in the committee's report from 24 sources, some of which describe in detail instances where Armenians have been put to death, women violated and children slaughtered, of robbery, torture, and death by starvation, and of terrible privations endured in long marches to the desert regions to which the Armenians have been exiled—crimes, described by the committee, as surpassing "in their horror and cruelty anything that history has recorded during the past thousand years."

"The idea of direct attack and massacre, carried out in former times," says one authority, writing under date of August 3, "has been altered somewhat in that the men and boys have been deported in great numbers and disappeared en route and later on the women and children have been made to follow.

For sometimes stories have been prevalent from letters arriving from the interior of the killing of males and of great numbers of bodies along the roadsides and floating in the Euphrates river; of the delivery to the Kurds, by the gendarmes accompanying the convoys, of women and children, of all the younger members of the parties; of unthinkable outrages committed by gendarmes and Kurds and even the killing of many victims."

The ladies asked for a $250 appropriation from each board, to which the government will add an additional $500 for supporting the work. The details of the work were explained before each board. It is planned to start the work at the earliest possible moment. Thirty-eight counties in the State have already made appropriations and the work is being carried on very successfully.

The committee consisted of Mrs. W. P. Baugham, Mrs. H. C. Carter, Mrs. J. W. Bailey, Mrs. Bain, Mrs. Fowle, Mrs. W. A. D. Branch and Mrs. F. H. A. Piker.
