INVESTIGATE SYSTEM OF BLACKMAIL

MANY WEALTHY AND PROMINENT MEN AND WOMEN WILL BE DRAGGED INTO CASE. REPUTATIONS TO SUFFER

Victims Will Be Made to Tell All They Know Regarding Groups Which Furnished Blackmailers Excuse for Attacking Them. (By United Press) Washington, Sept. 20.—Drastic plans, tending to force the victims of the nation-wide blackmailing syndicate to tell all they know, regardless of how such testimony might publicly soil the reputations of wealthy men and women, is one of the chief objects of the conference here of officials from the Chicago, New York and Philadelphia offices of investigation.

NEW PLAN FOR COMPLETING WORK ON ROAD

SUGGESTED THAT R. E. HODGES HAVE SUPERVISION OF ACTUAL CONSTRUCTION WORK. WOULD SOLVE PROBLEM

Believed That Mr. Hodges Could Undertake the Work Successfully. Derive Better Results Than Any Other Man Who Could Be Secured. To permit R. E. Hodges to either purchase the equipment and assume the management and supervision of the road work under Engineer Snowden, or else to allow Mr. Hodges to take charge of the equipment, under the same conditions, was the suggestion made today as a solution of the road problem of the township.

GERMANS FAIL TO RECOVER LOST GROUND

COUNTER ATTACKS ON SOMME ARE REPULSED EVERYWHERE BY THE FRENCH FORCES. SERBIANS ARE ADVANCING

Paris, Sept. 20.—The Germans continue hurling violent attacks on the French lines, north of the Somme from Clerly to the river. The war office announced this morning that the Teutons everywhere were checked by screen fire, except at the trenches on the northern slopes. Fierce Fighting in Balkans. Paris, Sept. 20.—The Serbians have captured a strongly fortified hill north of Berne, the highest peak of the Kamakachelen range, after violent hand to hand fighting. The Bulgarians resisted desperately, but were almost totally wiped out. Only fifty prisoners were taken. The French also dispersed the Bulgarians near Coreniko.

DANCE GIVEN LAST NIGHT

A delightful dance was given at the Elks' Hall last night by W. E. Baughman in honor of Miss Mathilda Hancock, of New Bern, who has been visiting Miss Eliza Branch. The dance began shortly after nine o'clock and continued until one. Punch was served during the course of the dance and the occasion proved to be a most enjoyable one.

STUFF THE KEYHOLES TO HIDE CORSET DISPLAY

(By United Press) Chicago, Sept. 20.—The keyholes to all the doors leading into the corset display room at the Fashion Art League Show here today were stuffed up to keep mere men from seeing pretty models put on and take off the very latest in corsets for the women artists and buyers. Designers declared the new corsets will make the feminine figure more perfect and distracting than ever before.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS RETURN FLAG TO YANKEES

(By United Press) Newark, O., Sept. 20.—The battle-scarred flag of the seventy-sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, lost in a hard fight with the "Johnnies" at Ringgold Gap, Georgia, more than fifty years ago, will be returned by the Confederate veterans to the union survivors of the Ohio regiment at their annual reunion here today. The seventy-sixth was ambushed at Ringgold Gap by the Confederates and suffered heavy losses before retreating. Every color bearer of the regiment, save one, Sergeant Montgomery, was killed. The flag was captured by the first Alabama regiment which charged the Buckeye soldiers who, in the face of superior numbers, fled.

WERE MARRIED LAST NIGHT

R. E. Crutchfield, Jr., and Miss Salome Rudd, of Burlington, were married last evening at 7:30 at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. D. H. Tuttle officiated. The ceremony was a quiet and simple one and was witnessed by only the immediate relatives. Mr. Crutchfield is manager of the Washington Gas Company.

AMERICAN TOBACCO CO. TO MOVE OFFICES SOUTH

(By United Press) New York, Sept. 20.—The American Tobacco Company is considering the removal of their factory from New York to point in the Carolinas. Durham and Richmond are being considered. Unsatisfactory labor conditions are given as the cause for this action.

WILSON TO VISIT WEST

Will Deliver a Few Set Speeches. No Attempt to Make Extended Tour. (By United Press) Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 20.—President Wilson is preparing for an invasion of the west. The time and place where he will deliver strategic blows designed to overthrow Candidate Hughes, are still undecided but the line of attack has been thoroughly mapped out. A conference was held with Vance McCormick, national chairman, last night. It is probable that the President will accept no western engagements before October 1.
