

WILSON WILL OPEN UP ON REPUBLICANS

TO MAKE ADDRESS BEFORE
GRAIN DEALERS OF COUNTRY
AT BALTIMORE.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT

Politicians Believe Wilson's Reception Will Have Decided Effect Upon Two Important Voting Strongholds of the Country.

(By United Press)
Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 21.— Great importance is attached by Democrats to President Wilson's address Monday before the National Grain Dealers' Association at Baltimore. What the President will have to say on that occasion and the reception that is accorded him, will have, they believe, a strong influence on two of the most important voting strongholds in the country. The grain dealers are in intimate touch with the farmers and also with the foremost shippers of the country, who, the railroads say, will have to "pay the freight" as the result of the President forcing the eight-hour legislation through congress.
Realizing the importance of the address, the President has already begun work on it. He is also expected to open up a counter attack for the first time on Hughes' eight-hour-law issue. He will leave Baltimore immediately after the speech.

CANDIDATES AT BAYSIDE

Entertained by Mr. Eborn at Bath.

The democratic county candidates spoke at Bayside last night at 8:30, before a good crowd of voters from that neighborhood. J. D. Eborn presided and introduced the speakers.
Messrs. Rumley and Mixon made their announcements, and were followed by Lindsay C. Warren, who spoke on state and county affairs.
The closing address was made by H.
C. Carter, district elector, who made a strong appeal for the re-election of the president.
The candidates were entertained at supper by J. D. Eborn at Bath at his splendid new hotel, formerly the Marsh house.

Revival at Asbury Church.
Rev. J. J. Lewis commenced a revival at the Asbury church last evening. A representative congregation was present and listened attentively to a most interesting and in-the meeting will be highly successful.

STRONG SERMON WAS PREACHED AT THE REVIVAL LAST NIGHT

"Biggest Business in the World" Discussed by Dr. Anderson Before Large Congregation.

"The biggest business in the world" was the subject of Dr. Anderson's sermon at last night's revival meeting at the Baptist church.
The largest congregation of the week was present to hear the sermon.
Dr. Anderson began his discussion by saying that some people had, as their chief business, the making of money. He said that there was no harm in making money or growing rich, as long as honest methods were pursued, but pointed out that money was not everything. He stated further that other people had "a good time" as their principal ambition in life.

"I like a good time as well as anyone," he said, "and I believe that I am having a good time. But sometimes, a good time may be compared to the flowers that help to make this world a beautiful one to live in. I read an account of two young people—carefree and happy—who went out in a small boat to gather some water lilies. Some grew careless and the boat upset. They were not a swimming crowd and when they finally managed to clamber up on the overturned boat, they found that one of the party—a beautiful young girl—was missing. One of the young men dove into the water at the point where they thought she had gone down, and found her entangled—entangled—in the stems of the beautiful lilies that they had been admiring. She was drowned. And that may be used as a comparison of the effect that a good time has on some persons."

Dr. Anderson went on to say that other people had politics and honor from their fellow men as their chief business of life. "But while they are cheered and honored one day, they are ridiculed and despised the next," he said. He concluded his sermon by showing in a powerful vivid manner that "the biggest business in the world" was the bringing of another soul in touch with God.
There were nine additions to the church last night as the result of the invitation that was extended at the conclusion of the sermon. Tonight, Dr. Anderson will take as his subject: "Will one sin send a man to hell?" He also announced a motto for the meetings: "Come to church, and bring a friend with you."

BULGAR-TEUTONS PIERCE RUSSO-RUMANIAN LINE

London, Sept. 21.—Field Marshal von Mackensen's right wing in Rumania, consisting of Germans, Bulgarians and Turks, has penetrated at several points the line to which the Russo-Rumanian army was forced back after its headlong dash through Dobruja.
The Sofia War Office announces the capture of three villages, all a few miles south of the Rasova-Tyza line, which the Russo-Rumanian forces are expected to defend to the last.
Mackensen's forces now are only seven miles south of Rasova, their immediate objective in the drive toward Cernavoda, the fortified Danube bridgehead. The Rumanian soutpost, Mangalia, twenty-six miles south of Constantza, was taken by the Bulgars September 18. Sofia announced today.

SALES UP TO AUGUST WERE GREATER THAN ALL OF LAST YEAR'S

R. B. Mixon, manager of the local Pepsi-Cola bottling plant, stated this morning that his sales from January 1 to August 1, this year, were in excess of those during all of last year.
In other words, the sale of this beverage for 1916 will be almost twice as great as for 1915.
Mr. Mixon is a big advertiser in the Daily News and Pepsi-Cola has been given considerable publicity in this manner.

60,000 POUNDS SOLD TODAY

A good sale was held at the local warehouses this morning, about 60-000 pounds being disposed of. The biggest sale of the week is expected tomorrow.
It is generally believed that the big sales days are over with on all the markets in this section of the State and that from now on, the week will be brought in smaller quantities. The first rush, caused by extreme high prices, is over with.
Reports from other markets show that the sales are decreasing considerably.

REPUBLICANS CLAIM THAT THEY WILL SECURE ELECTION OF HUGHES BY VOTE OF 300

Washington, Sept. 21.—Although Democratic campaign managers seemed to hold the field of public attention by means of publicity disseminated during the past 10 days, the Republican managers bucked up today and claimed the election of Hughes with an electoral vote of 300.
Officials of the various Republican organizations here in Washington have been extremely chary about claiming specific states and have withheld from public gaze all sorts of important and unimportant information concerning local conditions in various communities. However, leaders of the G. O. P. in various states have been asked to approximate the results of the coming election. Some of these leaders promptly replied that their states would be lost to the party, which cast more or less gloom in the camp and was responsible for the blue feeling that prevailed around the headquarters up to a few days ago. Later, when full returns came in the gloom was dispelled, and predictions now are being made by Republicans that Hughes will have 300 votes in the electoral college where 266 will elect him.

Republican senators here say that the battle has been fought and that few votes will be changed between now and election. They have prepared tables which show the way in which the G. O. P. believes the tide will turn. These tables are as follows:

Democratic states and votes—Alabama, 12; Arkansas, 9; Florida, 6; Georgia, 14; Louisiana, 10; Mississippi, 10; North Carolina, 12; Oklahoma, 10; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 20; Virginia, 12; Total, 130.
Probably Democratic states—Kentucky, 13; Maryland, 8.
Republican states—California, 13; Delaware, 3; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 29; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 15; Minnesota, 12; New Hampshire, 4; North Dakota, 5; Oregon, 5; Pennsylvania, 23; Rhode Island, 5; Utah, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 7; Wyoming, 3; Total, 263. Probably Republican—Ohio, 24.
States doubtful or claimed by both parties, in all events fighting territory—Arizona, 3; Colorado, 6; Connecticut, 7; Indiana, 15; Missouri, 18; Montana, 4; Nebraska, 5; Nevada, 3; New Jersey, 14; New Mexico, 3; New York, 45; West Virginia, 8; Wisconsin, 12. Total, 147.
These figures mean to Republicans that the Democrats must carry New York or loose.
Jack Messinger, writing to the Washington Star from New York, has the following in the political gossip: "The essential fact in the primary elections in this state yesterday is that the Progressives have

PAY-UP WEEK IS DISCUSSED

Merchants Believe That Event Would Prove Successful. Matter Discussed at Meeting.

At the meeting of the Business Men's Association Tuesday night, several important matters were brought up, among them being a discussion of a "Pay-up Week" for the community.

A letter from the Wilson Chamber of Commerce to Carl Goerch, was read at the meeting, telling of the success of the plan in that city last fall. The letter stated that $73,000 was collected in accounts during the week. Those merchants present at the meeting appeared to think highly of the idea and a special meeting has been called for next Tuesday night to take up the matter.

The secretary was instructed to search the county records each month and furnish each member of the association with a complete list of all real estate transfers. He was also asked to get reports on new customers and distribute them among the members.

come back. It was demonstrated beyond cavil on the vote for Whitman for the governorship, who received not only the Republican nomination but the Progressive nomination.

"The state of New York contains more Republicans than Democrats on a count of noses, when they all vote Republican. It looks now as if they propose to vote Republican."

"My Democratic friends tell me 'Look out for Wilson luck. In the last days of the campaign he will turn a trick that will pull us all through.'"

"They are not dismayed or cast down. The 'form' however, it must be admitted, is against them."

"I am trying to give you the broad outlines of the country-wide political situation. The primary vote in this state and the vote in Maine shows that the people are up on their toes and keenly alive to politics."

"Prosperity has not dulled their sense of what is ahead of them."

"Men here who know the state and in this connection I am not giving you my own views, but those of people who make a business of trying to guess conditions—tell me that it looks like a Republican year in New York."

BRITISH RESTRICTIONS COST US $94,153,433

Washington, Sept. 21.—The Department of Commerce has prepared statistics showing that England's restrictions upon American exports to Sweden, Denmark and Holland caused them to drop $94,153,433 in the seven months ended with July, as compared with the same period in 1915.

Exports to Holland fell off $40, 990,785; to Sweden, $34,397,275 and to Denmark, $18,759,373. Norway's exports showed a gain of a bout $7,000,000.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice called on Secretary Lansing today. It was announced that the visit was purely social.

HORRIBLE SCENES ENACTED ON BALKAN BATTLEFIELDS

Jackals, Hyenas and Vultures Feast on the Bodies of Men Slain in Battle

ALLIES CONTINUE TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN THE WEST AND IN THE BALKANS

(By United Press)

London, Sept. 21.—Jackals and hyenas, creeping down from the mountains along the Serbian frontier are feasting upon the bodies of Bulgarians and Serbians, slain in the fierce fighting northeast of Lake Os-trovo. Three hundred bodies, piled in one heap in a ravine, have been stripped of flesh by the thousands of vultures, jackals and hyenas that hover about the battlefields. The Bulgars have been moved down by machine guns. Advancing Serbs, the next day, found only skeletons and bits of uniforms.

Conscription Adopted.
Melbourne, Sept. 21.—The Australian House of Representatives has adopted conscription, the vote being 47 to 12.

French Successful.
Paris, Sept. 21.—The French made two successful attempts northeast of Verdun last night, capturing trenches south of Thiaumont and advancing a hundred yards in the Vanx Chapitre woods. The Germans are not counter attacking along the Somme, due to the bad weather.

Advance in Balkans.
Paris, Sept. 21.—The French, in the Balkans, advanced three miles toward Hill 155, taking 50 prisoners.

Great Battle Being Fought.
Sofia, Sept. 21.—The Russo-Ru-manians are maintaining strongly fortified positions at Dobruja in the face of heavy Bulgarian attacks. It was officially admitted today. The battle is increasing in violence and both sides are fighting with the greatest stubbornness. The battle around Florina, in Macedonia is developing favorably for the Bulgars.
The allied counter attacks were repulsed with heavy losses.

British Make Advances.
London, Sept. 21.—The British advanced south of Ancre last night despite fierce resistance. The Germans encountered strongly against the New Zealanders, but were driven back with heavy losses.

Stir Up Feeling in U. S.
London, Sept. 21.—German propa-gandists are attempting to stir up bad feeling between the United States and Great Britain by circulating false charges regarding the British foreign office today told the United Press. "The German wireless news agency, indeed the whole system of propaganda, loses no opportunity to endeavor to create ill feeling between Great Britain and her friends," said the foreign office.

WAR DELAYS AEROPLANE MAIL ROUTE IN ALASKA

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 21.—Ench-Sam's aeroplane mail route into Alaska, contracted for some time ago, cannot start because the European war is gobbling up all the aeroplanes as fast as they're made. Second Assistant Postmaster General Praeger, who is in charge of the new air route between Seward and Idilarod, Alaska, is in high lones that the route will be in operation by spring, he said today. The air line will take the place of the old Malamute Trail and instead of listening for the porcupine's whistle as most persons do, the Alaskan folk will strain their ears for the whirr of a 200 horse power motor high up in the air.
Earl L. Byers, an Alaskan capitalist, made a bid for the aeroplane service contract that was acceptable to the government; and he's trying hard to get the aces.

ALL HONOR TO THE BEAN: IT IS RISING IN PRICE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 21.—The newly bean was honored today when peered into, dissected and analyzed by a lot of highbrow chemists and bewhiskered food experts working for the State Board of Control.

The board has to feed all the state institution patients and beans, once $2.50 a bushel, now sell for about $7.50. The state board wants to know what's in the bean and what could be used as a suitable substitute.
