

Men's Footwear

The new Mahogany English, the latest, nobbiest of them all. See display. Dressy, easy, serviceable.

$6.50

New Felt Hats

Of the famous C. & K. make. Lizard Green, Hunters Green, Seal and black. Come in today and try them.

$3.50

J. K. HOYT

MISS LOUISE MYERS BECOMES BRIDE OF ELBERT WESTON

St. Peter's Rectory Was the Scene of a Beautiful Wedding Yesterday Morning.

The marriage of two of Washington's most popular young people, Miss Louise Nutt Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Harvey Myers, and Mr. Elbert G. Weston, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Weston, took place at St. Peter's Episcopal church yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, this being the 23rd anniversary of Miss Myers' mother. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and was aglow with cathedral candles.

The ceremony was performed by their Rector, Rev. Nathaniel Harding, from a white prayer book loaned by the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Kate L. Blount, and which had been used at other weddings in the immediate family.

The bride wore a handsome suit of brown velour and Hudson Seal with hat, gloves and shoes to match and carried a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. She entered on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Jim Weston, of Greenville, S. C. The schoolgirl sister of the bride, Miss Barbara Gray Myers, was her maid of honor and wore a dress of white net and green ribbon with a white lace hat trimmed in pink roses and carried on her arm a bouquet of pink rosebuds and ferns. Mrs. Edward H. Harding, the dame of honor, wore a handsome creation of papal satin and crepe with a gold hat and carried an old fashioned bouquet of palmer violets.

The bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march, music being rendered by Edmund H. Harding. The ushers were Mr. Francis M. Charles, cousin to the bride, and Mr. Enoch Simmons, cousin to the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston left on the Norfolk Southern train for an extended northern trip.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. L. C. Wooten and Miss Sallie H. Myers, of Fayetteville, both aunts of the bride.

Last night the bridal party and bride-to-be were entertained at the home of the bride. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns, the color scheme being white, pink and green. The cream and cake was served in shapes of heart-bells and roses. The cutting of the wedding cake afforded much merriment. There were no invitations but the beautiful gifts displayed proved the popularity of the young couple.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE DAILY NEWS

Miss Jeanne d'Arc's Signature. All credulous and believing France thinks today that the country is being saved by Jeanne d'Arc. As Marie Van Vorst says, "Just think of it, in the twentieth century, when the war is being fought in the air and under the sea, there remains enough of spiritual faith to believe that the salvation of a country comes through prayer."

Alligators Fight to Death. Two large alligators, which had made their home in the basin of a fountain in the grounds surrounding the Municipal building at Wheeling, W. Va., for seven years, fought a duel to the death recently, the elder of the two succumbing to the teeth and tail of his younger companion. The alligators were brought from Florida seven years ago by W. S. McEroy, then city treasurer, and were put in the fountain. But as the alligators grew the pool became too small to accommodate them, and they became peevish. Finally they decided to have it out, and fought before a large crowd of spectators, who were the "favorites" here.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY NEWS

Painful Reminiscences. "I still pity the old-fashioned boy whose economical parents always bought his clothes several sizes too big for him, so that he might 'grow to them,'" reminiscently remarked old Wesley Prodd. "As a result of the practice his garments never really fitted him for more than two hours and a half. The rest of the time he was either growing to them, and they bagged and flapped all over his wretched frame, or he was growing out of them, and as the days went by protruded more and more at the wrists and ankles and neck, and all the time he was humiliated and ashamed. I still pity that boy, because I was one of him."—Kansas City Star.

Muscular Conversion.

During a revival in a San Joaquin valley town a character known locally as a tough customer "got religion." A few days later one of the exhorters came upon him behind a clump of shrubbery just in time to see him knock down one of his former cronies, whom he proceeded to sit upon, brandishing one huge fist and exclaiming, "Now, 'tys give in, now 'tys give in!" "Why, brother," gasped the professional expounder of the Gospel, "what does this mean?" "It means," said the convert, "that 'tys give in, now 'tys give in, now 'tys give in!"

Weak Kidneys regulated and made strong by the celebrated Shivar Mineral Water. Positively guaranteed by money-back offer. Taste finer, costs a trifle. Delivered anywhere by our Washington Distribution, Elmont's Pharmacy. Phone them.

CELEBRATED HIS BIRTHDAY

Chas. Edwards, Jr., gave a delightful party Tuesday afternoon, from four till six o'clock, at his home on East Main street celebrating his fourth anniversary.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, chrysanthemums and ferns being used. The color scheme was pink and green, also pink drapings from the chandeliers.

An enjoyable feature of the afternoon was a "hunting game." Jack Nicholson and Alma Jefferson were the lucky ones and received a tiny remembrance of the day.

After the game they all retired to the dining room, this too being decorated in the colors. Here dainty refreshments were served, and the little ones declared, "a very happy time spent and not soon to be forgotten."

Among those present were Mary Smilly Paul, Elizabeth and Margaret Sparrow, Ethel Sterling, Virginia Paul, Beverly and Justin Woodard, Alma and Lorena Jefferson, Estelle Mayo, Elizabeth Griggs, Josephine and Jack Nicholson, Helena and Johnnie Russ, Margaret Powell, Alton Sutry, Elizabeth Sawyer, William Eden, Mary and Jack Matthews, Josh Walker, Suddie Bragg, Edward Elliott and William Waters.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION" REPEATED TONIGHT

(By the Press Agent) Last night was great so far as the movie picture enthusiasts were concerned, for they saw the greatest spectacular movie ever witnessed here, being "The Birth of a Nation." Every seat in the theatre was sold and standing room at a premium. Those who stood had no cause to kick. The production in the talk of the city today. It is educative and instructive and will pay every citizen in Washington to witness it. Last night people from all sections of the county saw it and tonight others from afar will occupy seats. It is the crowning attraction of the season. There was not a dull moment. The music by the orchestra has never been excelled here. Be sure and see it tonight. Secure your seats early. "The Birth of a Nation" is a production every true Southerner should see.

Attended New Bern Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Singleton, Miss Odessa Hooten, Miss P. A. Singleton and Miss Bessie Clark motored to New Bern yesterday and attended the fair.

Washington's Shopping Centre

Our Mr. A. L. Bowers is still in New York City buying the most complete line of wearables ever displayed in this city.

We are receiving large numbers of express packages on every train. Garments which consists of

Suits, Dresses and Coats

Will be on display TOMORROW, FRIDAY. Don't fail to see them.

Remember This Will Not be a Display

Of early season styles at reduced prices, but new, crisp, late style Garments, each being specially priced.

Will Expect You Tomorrow

Bowers Bros. Company

Washington's Best Store

NOTICE OF SUMMONS.

North Carolina, Beaufort County. Superior Court, before the Clerk. W. R. Manning and Allie Manning Durham, vs.

J. G. M. Cordon and others. J. G. M. Cordon, J. D. Cordon, Fannie Cordon and Another minor heir of S. K. Cordon, name unknown, Carmer T. Cordon, Seth K. Cordon, Robert C. Cordon, Oscar F. Cordon, Margaret Cordon Gore and husband, Will Take Notice:

That an action, or special proceeding, entitled as above, has been instituted in the Superior Court of Beaufort County, for the sale for partition of the Seth K. Cordon place, on Bonn Street, Washington, N. C., the summons in which said special proceeding is returnable before Geo.

A. Paul, Clerk of the Superior Court, at his office in Washington, N. C., at 11 a. m. on the 9th day of December, 1916, when and where you are required to appear and answer, or demur, to the petition therein filed, or the relief demanded will be granted.

This November 7th, 1916.

GEO. A. PAUL, Clerk Superior Court.

11-9-4w.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE DAILY NEWS

Don't Fail to Visit Our Store This Week

Don't fail to visit our store this week and interview Miss Mae Marshall, of Boston, Harmony beauty specialist, on the best treatment for skin and hair.

We are also having a special demonstration of Harmony Toilet Requisites by Miss Marshall.

Call in Person or Phone

Worthy & Etheridge

LADIES SHOES

In the Latest Models & Styles

Our stock is complete and we make a speciality of shoe fitting. We urge your inspection of this beautiful line of Shoes.

Spencer Bros.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM

NEWCOMB CARLTON, President

RECEIVED AT 2RD B 40 N L

SI New York, N Y Nov. 7, 16

LEWIS DRY GOODS CO.

Washington, N. C.

The suits we purchased for you today have broken all New York records. They are the most brilliant, original and distinguished group of styles ever shown at price which we feel sure are actual intrinsic values instead of these extravagant high prices usually asked.

PECK & CO.

8.10 a m Nov. 8.

These Will Be on Display Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 9, 10, 11.

Lewis Dry Goods Company

Just Received This Week 3 Solid Carloads 1917 Models

STUDEBAKER CARS

Four Cylinder Touring Cars
Six Cylinder Touring Cars

The price of either model advances $100 on and after Dec. 1st

HACKNEY & JACKSON

Washington, N. C.

$ 915.00 Delivered
$1135.00 Delivered