The Town Gossip

YOU MIGHT think THAT IT'S funny FOR THE Town Gossip TO BE in this column TODAY. BUT IT isn't funny. AND I guess I'M TOO lazy. OR TIRED. OR SOMETHING. AND I didn't feel LIKE WRITING. AND EDITORIALS THIS MORNING. AND IT'S been AN AWFUL night. AND I said yesterday THAT I was going to bed LAST NIGHT. AT EIGHT o'clock. AND I never told A BIGGER lie IN MY life. AND I went around TO THE telegraph office AFTER SUPPER. AND THOUGHT I'D STAY there FOR AN hour or two. AND THINGS got SO INTERESTING. THAT I couldn't break away. AND THEY kept GETTING MORE interesting. ALL THE time. AND AT midnight I WAS still there. AND SO were CAPTAIN GEORGE HILL AND DICK HUDSON. AND GEORGE Hackney. AND CLAUD Jordan. AND FRED Ayers. AND A bunch of others. AND THEN WILSON WAS elected. AND EVERYTHING WENT UP in the air. AND I thought THAT IT would be nice IF WE could get out AN EXTRA. AND LET everybody

HAVE THE full details. WHEN THEY woke up IN THE morning. AND I came down TO THE office. AND WAITED UNTIL THINGS HAD QUIETED down. AND THEN I TELEPHONED TO EDITOR Horne. AT ROCKY Mount. AND HE gave me EVERYTHING he knew. AND THEN EDITOR DAWSON AT NEW Bern TOLD ME everything he knew. AND I wrote it all up. AND SET the heads. AND CALLED up ED SPENCER. AND HE runs THE LINOTYPE for us. AND HE said HE'D be down AT HALF past four THIS MORNING. AND IT was ALMOST three o'clock then. AND I went home. AND WENT to bed. AND GOT up AT HALF past four. AND CAME down TO THE office again. AND WE put the extra ON THE press. AND RAN them off. AND THEN I DELIVERED them AROUND TOWN. AND SPENCER and I WENT HOME FOR BREAKFAST. AND THAT'S why I DIDN'T get a chance TO WRITE any editorial. AND I'M sleepy. AND THAT'S all. I THANK you. P. S.—No divorce yet. (P. S. Azain: Sleepy; too; Spencer)

CAPTAIN GEORGE HILL THRILLS LARGE AUDIENCE WITH STIRRING ADDRESS

(Written at 1:30 a. m.) One of the features of the local celebration at midnight last night when the re-election of President Wilson was announced, was the speech made from the seat of an automobile on Main street by Captain George Hill, one of the staunchest and most loyal Democrats in the county. As soon as Captain George learned the news, he climbed into the automobile. He raised his hands aloft. In about ten seconds he had the attention of the large crowd which gathered to hear his voice. Here's his speech: "My fellow patriots: This glorious democratic Democracy of ours in which we now reside, is a glorious Democracy again. From the sandy shores of Maine to the rock-ribbed coast of the Pacific, we gather at this time to pay honor to that most glorious and magnificent president that these United States have ever had, Woodrow Wilson. (Loud applause.) "My fellow patriots, this glorious democratic Democracy is proud to have Woodrow Wilson at the pilot house of this most magnificent Democracy. He will steer the Ship of State over the rough seas of tribulations and trials like unto which no other man in this most extraordinary and effervescent Democracy could hope to do. (Spirited applause.) "My patriots, this splendid and gorgeous democracy hails Woodrow Wilson as its next president, with one hand outstretched to welcome him again, with another hand pointing proudly to his past record, with his other hand shaking at the Republicans and with his last hand pointing toward the clouds of Heaven, to show the pinnacles of fame and achievement to which this beautiful and illustrious democratic Democracy of ours may hope to attain." (Vociferous applause.)

DANCE NOVELTY COMING HERE

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 10.—Abas, Salome, likewise the sensuous Egyptian and the tantalizing, wriggling hula

Today's ads have, for you—if you need to buy anything—an IMMEDIATE cash value. Your attention to them will save you from that commonest act of imprudence—paying too much for something.

hula maid, each of whom, it seems, took a lesson from Miss Hootechie-Kootechie—America is to have a new stage dance.

Methabolic or geometrical dancing is its label and Mme. Valentine de Salet Pelet is its exponent. She is now en route to New York on the Monseigneur from Barcelona Spain. The dancing which she will introduce has a "cerebral quality," which is explained thusly.

While music, painting and sculpture have changed in form and method becoming more "cerebral" instead of merely emotional, dancing has remained an art which appeals through the eye, to the sense alone. In the new geometrical dancing all of the elements which fill the house when Mary Garden dances Salome are retained and artists are introduced giving the movements meanings.

The dances are staged with Mme. de Saint Point's own poems set to music by Debussy, Ravel and other composers. In some the garb is very light, in one, however, a coat of mail with only slits for the eyes is worn.

Keeps Her Children In Perfect Health

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the Family Laxative for Many Years.

Mrs. Aug. Doellefeld, of Carlyle, Ill., recently wrote to Dr. Caldwell, at Monticello, Ill., that she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in her home for a number of years, and would not be without it, as with it she has been able to keep her four children in perfect health.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that acts on the bowels in an easy, natural way, and regulates the action of this most important function. Nearly all the sickness to which children are subject is traceable to bowel inaction, and a mild, dependable laxative, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should have a place in every family medicine chest. It is pleasant to the taste and children like it, and take it readily, while it is equally effective for adults.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere for fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure you get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
