What Women Are Doing in France.
 France being a country where universal service is the rule to some extent, depending largely on the work of women; but even in the times of peace there were places where they were chief citizens. At Troyes, in the Department of the Oise, most of the town's inhabitants are held by women.

McDuff, Va.—I suffered for several years, says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, with such headaches, nervousness, etc.
 Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine I ever used.

NEWS FROM AURORA
 Many Social Events During the Holiday Week, Including Dances and Parties.

AURORA, N. C.—The young ladies of the Wesley Bible Class, M. E. church gave a reception Thursday evening from 8:30 o'clock to 11 at the residence of Miss Nora Paul. The Paul home was attractively decorated with foliage suggestive of the Christmas time and the blaze of the open fires gave most hearty cheer to the guests as they arrived. Miss Mattie Hooker welcomed the guests at the front door and they were shown to the receiving line composed of the hostess and Misses Mayfield Hudnell, Daunie Godley, Clarissa Bonner, Mary Bonner, Bonner Thompson, Lola Thompson. After an hour of games and social conversation, the guests were ushered into the dining room by Miss Paul. The dining room was aglow with soft light of candles and the dining table was most attractive with its dainty lace and Christmas green. Delicious refreshments were served.

Among those invited were: Misses Emma Hooker, Mattie Hooker, Fannie Price, Daunie Godley, Clarissa Bonner, Mary Bonner, Glna Willis of Morehead, Sallie Hollowell, Octavia and Annie Dunn of Pinetops, N. C., Bonner Thompson, Lola Thompson, Clara Litchfield, Nina Redditt, Lois Hudnell, Mayfield Hudnell, Nina Paul, Eleanor Cuthrell; Messrs. Selby Jones, Merle Bonner, Elwood Butt, Halsey Thompson, Oscar Paul, Vernon Paul of Morehead, Paul Casey, H. C. Jones, Archie Bonner, J. E.

Since her good health began to fail seven years ago, her cheerfulness has been remarkable, even deceiving those nearest to her, as to her condition. She was ever telling with gratitude, of the many blessings and pleasures of life which had been hers and counted not the least of these, the constant, faithful and untiring care of a loving daughter which never wavered.
