Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen: "It ain't my business to see that the law is enforced. Don't we elect officers to do that?"

No newspaper is worth two hot. in a barnyard that never steps on anyone's toes.

No doubt most of us would vote it a pleasing address if it was delivered in ten minutes, but the great trouble is the speakers all appear to think the audience is enjoying it as much as the speaker, which, of course, is not true.

The wise person is one who trains himself to do more than one thing well, thus providing additional outlets for his abilities.

An American boy will quit the farm to keep from getting up at 5 a. m. After he goes in business in the city he gets up at 4 a. m. to play golf.
